In Memoriam

During the month of July we said goodbye to one of our long time members and friend to all.

V.G. ROLLINS

V.G. lived in Longview Texas and was laid to rest on July 23, 2016.
V.G. was an active member of this club for over 20 years.
He will always be remembered for his service with the Boy Scouts.

Please take a moment to reflect on the good times you enjoyed with him and join us as we pray the Lord watch over his family and friends.

He will be greatly missed

MINUTES FROM JULY 2016 CLUB MEETING

The July 11, 2016 meeting of the E.T.T.H.A. was called to order by President Kenny Mathews at 7:00pm.

There were 28 members present. No secretary or Treasurer reports were given, two months will be given at August meeting.

Old Business:

1. Discussion was held regarding the annual relic hunt and the club voted to have the 6th annual hunt in March 2017. Motion by Rick Hurlburt and 2nd by Marie Smith and no opposing votes.

New Business

1. August ice cream social and $500 night hunt scheduled for August 13th, 7:00 start for ice cream and root beer, hunt at dark.
2. TAMDC summer satellite hunt - Corpus Christi July 22 & 23
3. August meeting will be auction, bring an item to be auctioned for benefit of club.
4. Garrett Detectors is planning a nationwide hunt to be held in Jefferson next spring.

Speaker

There was no speaker, Terry Smith discussed his hunt in New Hampshire which was also in American Digger magazine. Bryan Zur told about getting muddy and stuck in Remlig sawmill site, and Jimmy Clark told about losing out on a gold ring at Lake Hawkins to Sam Jones.

The raffles and door prizes were given and there was no winner of the Split the Pot.
