

Dr. Veronica J. Bradley

Veronica Jean Bradley graduated from W. A. Pattillo High School in the Class of 1967 with a full academic scholarship and an award for writing from North Carolina's largest circulated newspaper – The News and Observer. Veronica is a current resident of Hampton, Virginia which is the home of her undergraduate alma mater, Hampton Institute (now Hampton University). While employed full time, she matriculated and earned her masters of art and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. After 37 combined years of service in the Commonwealth of Virginia's private and public sectors of the higher education system, Dr. Bradley retired from the public sector as a Fiscal Administrator. She is the Church Administrator, a teller, Chairperson of the Pastor's Anniversary Committee, and a member of the intercessory prayer team at her church. Dr. Bradley's most memorable organizational memberships include: The American Association of University Women, Pi Lambda Theta Honor Society, Phi Delta Kappa Fraternity in Education, Kappa Delta Pi International Honor Society, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., and the W. A. Pattillo National Alumni Association, Inc. She is the originator of the "Honorary Graduate" program which was subsequently implemented on July 4, 2015 at the 34th Annual Reunion GALA Celebration of the alumni association. On June 29, 2018 at the alumni association's 37th Annual Reunion Meet 'n Greet, Dr. Bradley was presented with the first copy of the association's reunion souvenir booklet which was dedicated in her honor. Under her chairmanship of the Publications Committee from 2011 through 2017, the first colored edition of the alumni association's reunion souvenir booklet was produced. It was circulated on July 3, 2015 at the 34th Annual Reunion of the association and has since become a standard practice. During her tenure with the Pattillo High School National Alumni Association she has also served and continues to provide services in a variety of capacities including: the Co-Chair of the 36th Annual Reunion Committee in 2017, a Director-At-Large, the Finance Committee Chair and Budget Officer, a member of the Public Relations and Program Committees, and a member of an adhoc committee to the Hall of Fame Committee. Veronica is passionate about assisting in keeping the rich legacy of W. A. Pattillo High School alive and contributing to an improved quality of life for the citizens of Edgecombe County and beyond.
