NEW TESTAMENT

PHILIPPIANS

Paul did not write Philippians to address a crisis, like he did with the Thimotheans. He wrote it to express his appreciation and affection for the believers in the church at Philippi. In fact, when Paul was in prison, the people offered Paul support for his ministry in payment of his debts.

MATTHEW 01 NT

Matthew, also known as Levi, was one of Jesus' disciples. He was a tax collector who was so joyful when Jesus showed him attention that he signed on quickly to full-time duty. Matthew was writing to Jews as opposed to Gentiles, which is why his gospel often quotes the Old Testament to show how prophecies were fulfilled. The other gospels don't do that.

The book contains a genealogy of Jesus that dates back to Abraham, showing that many Old Testament prophecies about this bloodline came true in his birth. Other passages it is famous for include the Christmas story of the Magi (Wise Men) and the Great Commission.

REVELATION 27 NT

Revelation is a book of symbols and visions that are hard to understand. That's likely because it was written during a time of persecution, and many scholars feel that if people pray hard and are sincere about it, they will begin to reveal some.

Revelation describes a seven-year tribulation or "hard time" that will come upon the earth, and a time when everyone will be part of his new heaven and new earth who want to be with him.

MARK | 02 NT

Mark, also known as John Mark, was a friend of Apostle Peter, but then he traveled with Apostle Paul and his assistant Barnabas on Paul's first missionary journey around Asia Minor. The book is loaded with miracles. Mark's point was to show how powerful, kind, and merciful God is.

The Gospel of Mark does not mention the birth or childhood of Jesus, but starts with the ministry of John the Baptist. Whereas Matthew presents Jesus as king, Mark presents him as a humble servant of man.

LUKE | 03 NT

Luke was a very well-educated Gentile and friend of several apostles. Much of the material in Luke's gospel involves Jesus' dealings with individuals. Many are not wealthy or part of the acceptable society of their day. They include many sinners. Hence, Luke is considered a gospel of extremely good news—for the common man.

While Matthew attempts to prove Christ's kingship, Luke shows him as the one who offers salvation to all humanity—Jew and Gentile alike.

JOHN | 04 NT

John wanted to make sure people knew that Jesus was not just a great prophet, miracle man, or teacher. He was “the only begotten son of God.” Jesus was different than we are. We are born of men, and Jesus was born of God, according to all that John stated.

New Christians often start reading their Bibles with the Book of John. This is because he was a fisherman, and not a Jewish scholar, before becoming an apostle. All he has to say is very relatable to normal, working-class people—like us and the generations who came before us.

ACTS | 05 NT

The Book of Acts was written by Luke, author of the Gospel of Luke, and is considered by many to be a sequel. Acts is the only book in the Bible that tells us how the early church was born. It gives a valuable account of how the church was able to spark in Jerusalem and spread throughout the Roman Empire.

Chapters 1 - 12 primarily follow Peter until his belief in preaching to the Gentiles is fulfilled. Chapters 13-28 primarily follow Paul and his missionary journeys far and wide. The book ends before either man is martyred (killed) for the faith, which is why it is dated in the early 60s AD.

ROMANS | 06 NT

Paul was writing to Christians living in Rome. Nero was emperor. He did dastardly things to Christians, but he hadn't started yet. It was a time of peace. However, Paul knew he was writing to city people who can be really different from each other. Tough sailors, well-traveled tradesmen, wealthy former idolaters, and slaves were all part of the new church in Rome.

In Chapters 1-8, Paul explains the foundations of the Christian faith. This is why the book is quoted so often in salvation messages. In Chapters 9-11, he explains how people can receive a relationship with God. In Chapters 12-16, Paul explains how to use this information to live a godly life.

1 CORINTHIANS | 07 NT

Apostle Paul heard there was quarrelling in the church. He was disappointed. He had spent 18 months with the Corinthian Christians and they had been doing well. He wanted to help them solve their quarreling.

In Chapters 1-4 Paul talks about the quarrels he's heard about and offers advice. In Chapters 5-11 Paul exposes sins he's heard are already infesting the church. They had to do with sexual immorality, filing lawsuits against each other, and other things. In Chapters 12-15, he helps them understand difficult doctrines such as what speaking in tongues means. In Chapters 15-16, he preaches the pure gospel again and encourages these believers to hold fast to what is good.

2 CORINTHIANS | 08 NT

Second Corinthians is actually the fourth letter Paul had written to this feisty group of believers. Two of the letters were lost in history. After three bad reports of their behavior, Paul finally got a good one. He wrote this letter to encourage them on their journey toward the kingdom of God.

Paul speaks about his own apostleship at great length in this book. It helps you get to know him as a person. Apparently, some people in Corinth had said he wasn't really an apostle because he didn't know Jesus until after Jesus' death and resurrection. He corrects that.

He then uses a description of his own ministry as an exhortation for the Corinthians to live godly and open-hearted lives. He describes how he's been honest, hopeful, and devoted while suffering, and how these things have blessed his ministry.

EPHESIANS | 10 NT

Paul visited Ephesus twice. The second time, a rich silversmith, Demetrius, found his business suffering greatly because people were converting to Christianity. He built silver idols, and suddenly there wasn't as much demand. There was a near-riot that led Paul to leave Ephesus, but only after he had done much to stabilize and grow the Christian community there. He wrote this letter while in prison in Rome to encourage them.

COLOSSIANS | 12 NT

The Colossian church was trying to mix Greek philosophy with Christian theology. The result was called Gnostic philosophy. Among other things, it taught that the physical world was evil and Jesus was a spirit and not a man. The book is most well-known for teaching us to be wary of false teachers.

1 THESSALONIANS | 13 NT

Paul spent about three months in Thessalonica when it was a small and new church. He wanted to check up on their faith, fearing that false teachers might have infiltrated their number. He sent back Timothy, who gave a surprisingly good report. That prompted Paul to write 1 Thessalonians as a letter of encouragement.

2 TIMOTHY | 16 NT

This book was the second written to Paul's young disciple Timothy. From the serious nature of this letter, it seems that Paul knew that his work was done and that his life was nearly at an end. Paul was arrested by the Roman Emperor Nero during the time when Nero was being very mean. Paul was martyred, which means he gave up his life for Christ. Nero had him decapitated.

TITUS | 17 NT

Titus was a young pastor being put in charge of the churches at Crete. Paul wrote to encourage him and addressed some of the same problems with leading a church as he addressed with Timothy, his young disciple.

Titus is important because it teaches us about redemption, and how Jesus becoming human was a necessary step in that process.

JAMES | 20 NT

A half-brother of Jesus, James was not a follower during the Savior's time on earth. In fact, Mark 3:21 has the half-brothers of Jesus during his early ministry thinking Jesus was "out of his mind." James finally became a believer upon seeing Jesus alive and well after the crucifixion. He became one of the leaders of the church at Jerusalem.

This book is overflowing with wisdom, and is often thought to be among the first books that Christians read after the Gospel of John.

1 PETER | 21 NT

This book is considered a great source to read when you are being picked on, bullied, or persecuted for your faith. Peter wrote the letter during Nero's reign. Nero was the Roman Emperor in the 60s AD, and he hated Christianity. He eventually did horrible things like throw Christians to lions to be eaten. He was addressing both Jews and Gentiles with encouragement to stay the course with Jesus, no matter what happened.

Peter appeared to have heard reports that false teachers had arisen in Asia Minor. He wrote the book partly to discourage people from listening to them, and also to continue encouraging them, though the time under Roman Emperor Nero had grown very tough on Christians. Hence, he talked about the Lord's return and how grand it would be if the people would hang in there.

2 JOHN | 24 NT

1 John was written to combat false teachings called “Gnosticism.” In 2 John, he is addressing the same issue, but not in as much detail. The tone suggests that John is writing a letter to someone who wrote to him first. He is encouraging that woman in a general way, saying he hopes to see her soon and give her details in person.

3 JOHN | 25 NT

John criticized a false teacher in this very brief letter. He even called him by name—Diotrephes. He accused the man of having a big ego and being a troublemaker. The letter shows us that even when the church was less than 50 years old, it had the same types of problems we have today with divisions and dishonesty.

JUDE | 26 NT

A short book, Jude nonetheless overflows with great material. While Jude continues the fight against heresy and deceit, his letter mentions two stories which are not in our Bible but would make us very curious!

One is that Satan tried to argue with the Archangel Michael over Moses' dead body. Jude also mentions Enoch, from way back in Genesis, who pleased God so much that God took him to heaven without dying. Early believers knew a lot about this great Enoch, but most of the material has been lost.

REVELATION | 27 NT

The Book of Revelation is full of symbols and visions that are hard to understand. That's likely because it isn't time to understand them yet. However, many scholars feel that if people pray hard and are sincere about wanting to know the answers, God will begin to reveal some.

The book shows visions about a seven-year tribulation or "hard time" that will come upon the earth, and after that, Jesus will return. He invites everyone to be part of his new heaven and new earth who want to be with him.
