Seven Oaks Ranch Summer Horsemanship Experience

June 13-16 or June 13-17, from 9 a.m. to noon
at Seven Oaks Ranch
13345 West 199th Street, Spring Hill, KS 66083

The Seven Oaks Ranch Summer Horsemanship Experience is taught by Daphne Thornton, Dana McCullough, Rachel Kruse, Kristen Hargis, and Shae Kimberling. Daphne has been a successful hunt seat riding instructor in the Kansas City area for 40+ years, has trained and produced national champions as well as local winners, and began her business, Two Bit Training, over 40 years ago. Dana, Rachel, and Kristen are assistant instructors and pro riders, and Shae is the horsemanship instructor. Together, they now run Two Bit Training, the hunt seat riding program founded by Daphne and hosted at Seven Oaks Ranch.

Camp days Monday through Thursday include:

- Supervised, one-on-one riding instruction on experienced lesson horses
- Hands-on, supervised, ground work and horsemanship practice with lesson horses
- Horse care and safety instruction
- Guest speakers and workshops covering veterinary care, horse shoeing, care and selection of tack and equipment, and equine feed and nutrition

Optional Friday Horse Show to display all of the new skills you have learned!!
