Opening Prayer

*Call to Worship

Praise be to God who has freed us from oppression!

Praise be to God who has healed our wounded souls!

Let our hearts rejoice at God's redeeming love.

Let our voices raise in songs of thanksgiving for all that God is doing for us.

Come, let us worship the Lord with our whole hearts!

May our praise and voices resound with joy! AMEN.

Scripture Passage [2 Kings 5:1-4; 9-14, NRSV]

- ¹Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favor with his master because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from a skin disease.
- ²Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife.
- ³She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his skin disease."
- ⁴So Naaman went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said.
- ⁹So Naaman came with his horses and chariots and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house.
- ¹⁰Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean."
- ¹¹But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God and would wave his hand over the spot and cure the skin disease!
- ¹²Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage.
- ¹³But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean'?"
- ¹⁴So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.
