Then come along to the next coffee run on Wednesday 8th March in Kyogle. In Cinema 3 come and experience film making from early black and white to the modern digital movies of today.

COFFEE RUN TO NIMBIN—8th FEBRUARY 2023.

On Wednesday 8th February we all headed off to Nimbin. It seemed that many of us have not returned to Nimbin since the good old days when hippies were in vogue, so it was opportune to re-explore the town again.

It was a lovely overcast day, providing some relief from the humidity, cooler than many people expected. The roads out were better than many people expected. The coffee was better than many people expected and Nimbin was just as we all expected it to be. Still a village all of its own: warm, friendly, colourful, alternative. Some things never change.

Gayl Mckay

Our immediate past president, David Besson obviously found the early start for Nimbin too much. Our President Bob Sweeney, provided him with this thoughtful gift

Ocean Shores Lunch Run, 19 February 2023. by Julie McKay

A good turnout for our February lunch run to Ocean Shores. Around 30 people and 18 cars gathered in Meldrum Park, Ballina for a BYO morning tea overlooking North Creek where it meets the mouth of the Richmond River. A lovely spot for morning tea on a beautiful sunny day.

After a chat in the shade of a Norfolk Pine most of us pushed on to the Ocean Shores Country Club for a pleasant lunch on the front verandah, where we were eventually outnumbered by the burly blokes from the Burleigh Social Golf Club. Many thanks to Gayl and Bob for organising this pleasant outing.
