Thanksgiving 2018

"...in everything give thanks;
for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus
for you." 1 THESSALONIANS 5:18

St. Francis de Sales Parish confesses our belief in Jesus Christ as Lord and proclaims the Kingdom of God in the Roman Catholic tradition by forming a community reflective of the diverse cultures of our area, empowered by God's spirit, and dedicated to the shared ministry of witnessing to the Good News in Word, in Sacrament, and in Action.

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES LODI, NJ.

FROM FR. FRANCISCO 'S DESK

Dear brothers and sisters,

"Learn a lesson from the fig tree" ... says the Gospel speaking about recognizing the signs of the times and reading what God is trying to tell us. In order to recognize the signs of times, we need to observe what is going on. Sometimes I feel that life has us always running and never stopping to think or reflect in the events of our lives. Thank God we have certain moments during the year that we are invited to do so – one of them being Thanksgiving. As we approach this day that is meant to be shared with family and close friends, I invite you to stop and reflect on what God has given you this year. Sometimes, even what seems bad or not so nice, has been a blessing in disguise. It is easy to be grateful and to see God in the joyful moments, but God is also loving us in what seems to us not so nice. Even the sickness, the problem, the parents, the child, whatever is giving you a headache – in other words, the Cross – is there to help us achieve eternal happiness. For this reason, Thanksgiving is inviting us to read or better reflect on the signs of the times of our life and recognize the Love that God has had with us. Only then, we will be truly grateful. May you enjoy this Thanksgiving, and may you bless the Lord for his goodness!

Thanks to all who have helped and participated in the Casino Night. I remind you that mass on Thanksgiving is at 9 AM and that the parish office is closed on Thanksgiving and the day after. There will be no Consecration class on Thursday and will resume next week. Please mark your calendars that the Three Kings are coming Saturday, January 5, 2019 at 10 AM.

Saint Francis de Sales Pray for us!

Queridos feligreses

"Aprended una lección de la higuera" ... dice el Evangelio hablando sobre reconocer los signos de los tiempos y leyendo lo que Dios está tratando de decirnos. Para reconocer los signos de los tiempos, debemos observar lo que está sucediendo. A veces siento que la vida nos tiene siempre corriendo y nunca nos detenemos a pensar o reflexionar en los eventos de nuestras vidas. Gracias a Dios, tenemos ciertos momentos durante el año en que estamos invitados a hacerlo, uno de ellos es el Día de Acción de Gracias. A medida que nos acercamos a este día que está destinado a compartir con familiares y amigos cercanos, los invito a detenerse y reflexionar sobre lo que Dios le ha dado este año. A veces, incluso lo que parece malo o no tan bueno, ha sido una bendición disfrazada. Es fácil estar agradecido y ver a Dios en los momentos de alegría, pero Dios también nos ama en lo que nos parece no tan agradable. Incluso la enfermedad, el problema, los padres, el niño, lo que sea que te cause dolor de cabeza, en otras palabras, la Cruz, están ahí para ayudarnos a alcanzar la felicidad eterna. Por esta razón, el Día de Acción de Gracias nos invita a leer o, mejor, a reflexionar sobre los signos de los tiempos de nuestra vida y reconocer el Amor que Dios ha tenido con nosotros. Solo así estaremos verdaderamente agradecidos. ¡Que disfrutes este Día de Acción de Gracias, y que bendigas al Señor por su bondad!

Gracias a todos los que han ayudado y participado en la Noche de Casino. Les recuerdo que la misa en el Día de Acción de Gracias es a las 9 AM y que la oficina parroquial está cerrada el día después del Día de Acción de Gracias. No habrá clases de consagración el jueves y se reanudará la próxima semana. Por favor, marque en sus calendarios que los Reyes Magos vendrán el sábado 5 de enero de 2019 a las 10 AM.

San Francisco de Sales, ¡ruega por nosotros!

Caros Paroquianos,

"Aprende uma lição da figueira" ... diz o Evangelho falando sobre reconhecer os sinais dos tempos e ler o que Deus está tentando nos dizer. Para reconhecer os sinais dos tempos, precisamos observar o que está acontecendo. Às vezes sinto que a vida nos faz sempre correr e nunca parar para pensar ou refletir nos acontecimentos de nossas vidas. Graças a Deus, temos certos momentos durante o ano em que somos convidados a fazê-lo - sendo um deles o Dia de Ação de Graças. À medida que nos aproximamos deste dia, que deve ser compartilhado com a família e amigos íntimos, convido-o a parar e refletir sobre o que Deus lhe deu este ano. Às vezes, até o que parece ruim ou não tão bom, tem sido uma bênção disfarçada. É fácil ser grato e ver Deus nos momentos de alegria, mas Deus também está nos amando no que não nos parece tão agradável. Até mesmo a doença, o problema, os pais, a criança, o que está lhe dando dor de cabeça - em outras palavras, a Cruz - estão lá para nos ajudar a alcançar a felicidade eterna. Por esta razão, o Dia de Ação de Graças está nos convidando a ler ou refletir melhor sobre os sinais dos tempos de nossa vida e reconhecer o Amor que Deus teve conosco. Só então seremos verdadeiramente gratos. Que você aproveite este Dia de Ação de Graças e abençoe o Senhor por sua bondade!

Obrigado a todos que ajudaram e participaram da Noite do Cassino. Lembro-lhe que a missa de Ação de Graças é às 9 horas e que o escritório da paróquia está fechado no dia seguinte ao Dia de Ação de Graças. Não haverá aula de Consagração na quinta-feira e será retomada na próxima semana. Por favor, marque seus calendários que os Três Reis estão chegando no sábado, 5 de janeiro de 2019 às 10 da manhã.

São Francisco de Sales, rogai por nós!
