

CHAMPAIGN CONFERENCE AT TRINITY CHURCH

Twenty-one churches are being represented at the Champaign District Conference of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church which opened Tuesday at Trinity CME Church in Decatur.

The theme of the conference was "The Church Realizing Itself."

Some of the churches represented were from Chicago, Danville, Champaign, Mt. Vernon, Joliet, and Harrisburg. Several Decatur people also attended the conference.

It will be brought to a close tomorrow by an 11 a. m. service.
