

BIO

HOLLY MORRIS

CHANGE LEADERSHIP AND INNOVATION @CLEARLYHOLLY |
HOLLY@LINKTOSUMMIT.COM

KEY SKILLS

Professional Coaching

- Leadership
- Equity
- Innovation

Strategic Thinking

- Team composition
- Stakeholder relations
- Vision/Mission

Communication

- Designing
- Presenting
- Writing

Certifications

- ICF Certified professional coach
- Prosci certified change practitioner
- Kotter certified change practitioner

EDUCATION

Northwestern University (BA)

University of Washington (MA)

University of California

Berkeley (JD)

EXPERIENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Holly Morris supports leaders in designing and operating innovative organizations that deliver equity-focused, human-centered solutions to their stakeholders. Recognizing that all innovation brings change, Holly uses knowledge of multiple change management frameworks to help leader navigate as they and their organizations evolve and change. Holly also leads and teaches user-centered design to leaders and teams. To all of this work, Holly brings ten plus years of experience in adaptive coaching, building leadership capacity within organizations for exceptional results.

- Designed and implemented a comprehensive coaching/mentoring program serving five, diverse communities working to improve early learning environments
- Incubated 7 teams designing K-12 schools
- Taught +/- 300 higher education leaders user-centered design in multi-month, cohort programs that resulted in a variety of higher-ed student success initiatives
- Coached +/- 50 leaders in non-profit, for-profit and education settings
- Co-authored "*Building a Culture of Innovation in Higher Education: Design & Practice for Leaders*"
- Frequent guest blogger in EdWeek