Wrightslaw programs often fill up early - don't miss out!

Program Description

One-day special education law and advocacy programs focus on four areas:

- special education law, rights and responsibilities
- tests and measurements to measure progress & regression
- SMART IEPs
- introduction to tactics & strategies for effective advocacy

Wrightslaw programs are designed to meet the needs of parents, educators, health care providers, advocates and attorneys who represent children with disabilities regarding special education. The program is not disability specific. Note: Pete will discuss the two recent unanimous U.S. Supreme Court special education cases and how he expects those two cases will be used to open more doors to the schoolhouse and the courthouse for our children with special needs.
