

TRINITY CME TO HAVE MEN'S AND WOMEN'S DAY

Trinity CME Church, 345 N. Jackson St., will have two speakers from St. Louis at its Men's and Women's Day program tomorrow.

Marion Guyton will speak to the men at 10:40 a.m. with the topic, "The Effectiveness of Man's Christianity."

Guyton is president of laymen of the Southeast Missouri and Illinois Annual Conference and superintendent of the Sunday school at Scruggs Memorial CME Church, St. Louis.

Miss Theonis Guyton, Guyton's daughter, will speak to the women at 3 p.m. on "Women, Are You Giving Service?"

Miss Guyton is a social worker in St. Louis and a primary Sunday school teacher at Scruggs Memorial CME Church.

A combined service with the congregation, youth choir, and pastor — the Rev. E. A. Morgan, of the Church of the Living God, CWFF — will be at 8:30 p.m.

The Rev. T. R. Johnson is pastor of Trinity CME Church.
