Article XIII. DUES, FEES, AND ASSESSMENTS

Section 13.01 Dues from members of Local Union 963 shall be as follows:

- a) All Regular and Apprentice members shall pay $45 per month. In the first instance, dues will be deducted from the 1.32% continuing assessment as provided for in Section 13.03 below. Thereafter, dues must be paid on a quarterly basis, either through an authorization provided to the Vacation Fund or directly by check.
 - a. The first Forty-Five Dollars ($45.00) of a members One Point Three Two Percent (1.32%) shall be remitted to IUPAT District Council 51/Local Union 963 as payment for Per Capita Tax & IU Death Benefit charges, which will be assessed monthly in the IMSe system.

Changed from:

All Regular and Apprentice members working under the Collective Bargaining Agreement: Five Point Eight Two Percent (6.82%) of gross wages for hours worked each week, of which, Five Percent (5%) goes to District Council 51 for Administrative Dues Check-Off and the Point Eight Two Percent (1.32%) goes to the Local Union Dues Check-Off.

Section 13.03 Assessments:

- b) Assessments and Funds
 - a. Each member shall be assessed 1.32% of gross wages. The first $135 of this assessment shall be used to pay the quarterly dues of the member through the quarter in which the wages are earned. The remainder shall be paid into the IUPAT DC 51 Vacation Fund.

The above section has been added to provide the IUPAT DC51 Vacation Fund benefit to the members of Local Union 963.
