

The readings for Pentecost promise that we are not on our own, but have the Spirit to guide us. In the first reading the Holy Spirit comes to the disciples. The psalm asks for the Spirit to come to us. In the second reading we learn that only through the Holy Spirit can we declare that Jesus Christ is Lord. In the alternate second reading we hear that life in the world brings only death, but the Spirit brings life. In the gospel Jesus breathes the Spirit into his disciples. In the alternate gospel Jesus promises that the Holy Spirit will keep us close to him.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And you shall renew the face of the earth. O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy this consolations. Through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Role of the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer and of the Church further explained:

How beautiful is the thought that the Holy Spirit lives within us!

Saint Paul reminds the Corinthian community of this fact when he asks, "Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?" (1 Corinthians 3:16). It is the Holy Spirit who develops our intimacy with God. "God has sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts crying, 'Abba!' ('Father!')" (Gal 4:6).

"God's love has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit Who has been given to us" (Romans 5:5). "No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord,' except by the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3). Moreover, we know that the Holy Spirit teaches us to pray (Romans 8:26).

By the power of the Spirit, we also know the Lord Jesus through his Church. Pentecost Sunday is the birth date of the Church, which the Holy Spirit enlivens, enlightens, guides, and sanctifies. The Psalm refrain for this Sunday says it so well: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." We know Jesus through the Sacramental Mysteries of the Church, and Holy Spirit is at the heart of the Sacramental life of the Church. Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Orders are the Sacramental Mysteries through which people receive the seal of the Holy Spirit.

It would be impossible for us to receive Jesus in the Eucharist without the descent of the Holy Spirit at the Epiclesis of the Divine Liturgy. Even the forgiveness of sins comes through the Holy Spirit (John 20:21-23). The Holy Spirit both confirmed the apostles in Holy Orders as priests and empowered them to forgive sins by His power, a work which He continues today in each of our priests.
