

Measurements and Units

OP1 measure length, mass, time and temperature, and perform simple calculations based on these to find the derived quantities: area, volume, density, speed, velocity, and acceleration; understand that units of measurement follow the SI system

