

Annual Meeting of the Person Memory Interest Group

1999

At Lake of the Ozarks, Missouri

Bill von Hippel (Ohio State University)

Information processing and behavior

Fritz Strack (University of Wuerzburg)

Political vs factual correctness: Strategies for the decontamination of social judgments

Bob Wyer (University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign)

1998 Ostrom Award Address: The mental representation and use of narratives in social information processing

Yaacov Schul (Hebrew University, Jerusalem)

Self reports versus other reports: differentiation and temporal consistency

Gun Semin (Free University Amsterdam)

Current flames and lost loves: The language of interpersonal proximity and distance

Jim Sherman (Indiana University)

Perceptions and Representations of Groups, Groups, and Groups

Tory Higgins (Columbia University)

1999 Ostrom Award Address: Motivation as Moderator of Decision-Making Mediators: The Case of Regulatory Focus

Irene Blair (University of Colorado)

The stability and generality of implicit stereotypes and prejudice

Jens Foerster and Nira Liberman (Columbia University)

A motivational view of post-suppressional rebound

Yoshi Kashima (LaTrobe University, Australia)

Group impression as dynamic configuration: The tensor product model of group impression formation and change

Daniel Wigboldus (University of Nijmegen, Netherlands)

Influence of stereotypes on spontaneous trait inferences