

Zaccheus

And going in, He passed through Jericho. And, behold, a man called by name Zaccheus; and he was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. And he was seeking to see Yahshua, who He is. And he was not able, because of the crowd, and he was little in stature

And running ahead, he went up onto a sycamore tree<sup>1</sup>, so that he might see Him; for He was going to pass through that way. And as He came to the place, looking up, Yahshua saw him, and said to him, Zaccheus, hurry, come down, for today I must stay in your house – Luke 19:4-5

And having hastened, he came down and welcomed Him, rejoicing – Luke 19:6

But standing, Zaccheus said to the Master, Behold, Master, half of my possessions I give to the poor. And if in anything I accused anyone falsely, I restore it fourfold – Luke 19:8
