Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John

Being Catholic takes more than simply believing in God or doing what he asks of us. Jesus wants you to be more than just a believer - he wants you to be his disciple and friend. To help you answer this call to deeper friendship with Christ, St. Joseph Parish will begin Follow Me: Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John starting on November 28th at 9:30 am and the following 3 Sundays of Advent. We will finish in January. For more information or to register, contact Mary at 715-573-0430 or email: stjoseph4faith@gmail.com. You will not only benefit personally from being part of this study; you will also help us to grow in fellowship as a parish as we grow closer to Christ together.

Confessions for Advent

Advent

- We have begun our New Year in the Church.
- The opening of Advent Season continues with End of Life/End of Time theme that our Liturgy has been focusing on in recent weeks.
- Christ came in history – just a “shoot” from the House of David; He will return in majesty and glory.
- Am I ready for this coming?
- Paul exhorts me to be blameless in “holiness” and Jesus calls me to be vigilant at all times and pray.

MARANATHA, Come, Lord Jesus
Have a blessed and a Fruitful Advent Season

2023 Diocesan Capital Campaign

- There will be a Diocesan Capital Campaign to run in the Diocese of La Crosse for all parishes (and Christ's Faithful).
- The Campaign will be spread over a period of five years.
- The Theme for the Campaign is: “Inspired By The Spirit.”
- As we begin a new season please make a personal (self-directed mission/retreat) with this theme, infusing it in your everyday life until Christmas, this year.
- “Inspired By The Spirit” ...
To: Pray, Teach, Serve, Restore, Give, Preach, Make Change, Create a Legacy, Form.

“Year of St. Joseph”

- As a fitting conclusion to the “Year of St. Joseph” there is a Novena we are encouraged to make beginning on Monday, Nov. 29th and concluding on Tuesday, Dec. 7th before the closing of the “Year of St. Joseph” on December 8th, Feast of the Immaculate Conception.
- There are Novena Prayers to conclude the “Year of St. Joseph” on the table in the foyer. Those interested can pick one and pray them on their own at home from 11/29-12/7.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Preparing the Manger

Where do you fall in the “Christmas-songs-in-November” debate — do you like them, tolerate them, or outright hate them? There’s no theological problem with Christmas songs in November outside of worship, even if it’s not everyone’s cup of tea. But there is a problem with getting so caught up in the baggage of the season — the trimmings, the gifts, the celebrations, all of which are marvelous in their own way — that you forget to prepare the manger.

Every good Catholic knows that Lent is a penitential season. It’s hard to miss that point — Lent doesn’t even have any fun songs you can groove to on the radio. We are pretty good at recognizing that Lent calls us to examine ourselves. To deny ourselves. To give of ourselves. And most of all, Lent calls us to prepare, as a good steward does, for the return of our master.

It’s harder for us to remember that with Advent, but Advent is just as much of an opportunity for penance, preparation, and reconciliation to God — and just as much reason, too. The very name of the season — “advent” — encourages us to focus on what is coming, not what is already here. Be on guard, the readings tell us today, “so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and (the coming of the Lord) catch you unexpectedly, like a trap.”

So let us not forget — our master’s advent is upon us. And let us ask ourselves: how can we prepare the manger? — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
