Shoot-offs: Brian Stoa and Jim Fleming tied for Singles Champion. They decided to use the Handicap event as their shoot-off. Brian Stoa emerged as the Singles Champion.

Highlights: For the last 2 day shoot until spring. Saturday we saw a picture perfect, fall day in Alaska. Brian Stoa ran the first 75 of his singles, while Jim Fleming and Rod Miland both started their frosty morning with a 25 straight. Saturday's Handicap only saw one 25 straight coming from Jon Hayes, earning him a punch before Sunday's second half of the Handicap race.

Sunday started a little warmer, a balmy 28 degrees with high grey clouds. Doubles saw a cold start for all but Steven Brown with his 47 in the first box. Steven only warmed up from there to take the Doubles Championship. Father and son Wayne & Kenny Jensen shot well, both making the grade, Doubles High Vet and Class D Champion, respectively.

Our major event was a combined Handicap score over Saturday and Sunday. While Michael Wascom took the 100 Handicap event on Sunday with an 88 and a punch, our overall Handicap winner was Jon Hayes with a combined score of 178.
