

We are an open, loving, and inclusive community that supports thinking creatively and living a deeply spiritual life.

Dear Beloved Community,

Our thoughts and prayers are extended to the family and friends of the victims of the shooting that took place last weekend at Club Q, a nightclub in Colorado Springs, CO. The ripple effect of such a senseless crime against the LGBTQIA+ community has directly impacted all of humanity, and specifically our community here in St. George.

Center for Spiritual Living St. George holds space for us to grieve this heinous act. We remember together that hate and violence are never the answer – instead let us reveal the truth that love is love, that our diversity is a natural state of Nature that enhances our life experience. We affirm our spiritual belief that we all belong to one another and that our vision is a world that includes, respects, and benefits everyone.

If you find yourself in need of prayer support or spiritual solace, please do not hesitate to reach out to one of our prayer practitioners (individual emails available on our website www.csllsg.org) or send an email to prayer@csllstgeorge.org.

We are here for you and for each other.
