

that come under the control of demons of people involved in Satanism. These areas are commonly referred to as: conscience, intuition, and worship. Many consider the soul to have two separate and distinct divisions, with each division again containing three further divisions. The six divisions are called: conscious, subconscious, unconscious, will, mind and emotions.

The power demon gets dominance over the physical body with death as his goal. The death may occur because of fatal damage, and the torment of ones mind, brain, or physical body.

If this individual leaves the Brotherhood, and accepts Yeshua in his life, the demons already given to him, upon his dedication to the coven, go into their destructive mode. Their job then becomes that of destruction and death, because of the curse attached at dedication. In the Satanic realm, if a person can't be kept under demonic control, they are to be destroyed.

Part of the ritual of initiation for a female, is the sexual intercourse that the master of the coven has with her. That symbolically makes her "a bride of Satan". The master can demand sex with her whenever he wishes from that moment on.

SLAIN IN THE SPIRIT DEMONIC PHENOMENA

Witches and warlocks often participate in charismatic churches with the laying on of hands for healing, causing the "slain in the spirit" phenomena. Satanists get directly involved in this kind of unbiblical practice using demons to slay people on their backs. Many witches have specific demons designated to transfer other demons by touch. They often give people demons, and often exchange powerful demons, that people have for their own use, replacing them with lesser demons. Some use a particular method of incantation with the hand movements, making demonic signs of the upside down cross, as the demons slay the person in the spirit. They will get the recipient to raise their hands, elbows forward and tap them on one hand and then the other, then on their forehead, making the sign of the upside down cross. Many people that go forward to be slain, in the churches, are eager and willing to receive a touch, from what they are lead to believe is YHVH. Many willingly blank out their minds, and go unconscious, accepting anything people working with demons, choose to put into them. "Demons of false tongues" are often given to these people, and because they come up speaking in tongues (that no one tries to interpret), they honestly believe they have received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. In the same way, demons of "divination" are often given to people, leading them to believe they are constantly being spoken to by the Holy Spirit. Many honestly think they are receiving "words of knowledge" from El Shaddai. These words of knowledge are nothing more than information from demons of divination. The information is accurate of course, because the demons have access to familiar spirit files on all people with demon spirits. These individuals are known as "CHARISMATIC WITCHES" and "FALSE PROPHETS". They are found frequently in most of the charismatic churches around the world.

In the Bible it states what happened to these people using divination as false prophets in Deut. 13:1,5 "you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams"--"that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death".

Some witches have specific demons given to them that cause people to be slain. Many evangelists, false prophets, and supposed healer, are people who have these demonic abilities, exploiting for entertainment purposes, under the guise of Biblical religion.

WER-BEASTS

Wer beasts, werewolves, vampires, zombies, chupacabra (goat sucker), vampire bats, big-foots, etc., are demons in unusual beastly forms, used by Satan to discipline his normal demons and those (occult members), who don't do as the demons inside them tell them to do.

A vampire is a demonized person who likes to drink blood, and in particular, prefers human blood. Maybe such things were being referred to in Ps. 57:4 “My soul is among lions; I must lie among those who breathe forth fire, {Even} the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, And their tongue a sharp sword.”

MEETINGS

Meetings are usually at midnight on Fridays or Saturdays, along with multiple special rituals throughout the year. Every meeting has a blood sacrifice of one kind or another. Usually the animal (cat or dog), being used for sacrifice, is split open with a knife while it is alive and the heart is removed while still beating. The entire stomach and all organs are then removed and placed in a caldron type vessel, and the blood and guts is passed around for everyone to drink and eat from. This supposedly gives them power. Every midnight meeting has some type of blood sacrifice, whether it be animal or human, and much of the blood and intestines will be eaten by most during these meetings.

Every meeting either ends or starts with an orgy. The orgies that take place at coven meetings, are between Satanic bride and groom partners of initiated people. New people and those who have not been initiated yet, have free open multiple sex as much as they desire.

Normally a large round circle (9 ft.) will be drawn on the ground with a pentagram in it. Black candles are placed at the tip of each of the five points, and one white candle near the altar. A naked women is often used as an alter or spread out over an altar. Only those initiated can come inside the circle. Others must stay outside the circle. Various curses and incantations may take place for hours, until all their dirty work is complete.

Many witches covens consist of 6 men and 6 women. They meet monthly at the time of the full moon and eight other times of the year called sabbats. They have a high priestess who has power over the summer months and a high priest who has power over the winter. Many are governed by a High Priestess who is called the “Queen of heaven” (the name many recognize, commonly known as “Lady Liberty”, “Semiramis”, or “Ishtar/ Easter”). The garter is the badge of office of the high priestess. King Edward the Third (1327-1377) openly displayed his garter and claimed to be a witch.

BREEDERS

Every coven has its own “breeders”. These are women who have babies about every second year, to be used as human sacrifices. These women (once they begin to show their pregnancy), are kept isolated from friends and relatives, until the baby is born and sacrificed. They never go to a hospital to have the child, and there is never any record of its birth. Satanic midwives deliver the baby, and no one ever knows of its existence. If the breeder has too many female babies, instead of the more powerful male babies, she is often sacrificed herself.

RITUALS

Anton LaVey’s Satanic ritual book admits that the rituals used in Satanism, originated from the Freemasons rituals, that go back to the beginning of time, under various names as far back as the “Knights of Templar”. The Masons call specific rituals “degrees,” and each time a Mason advances up the ladder he partakes of a Satanic ritual just like Satanists. You might say they are “Brothers”. LaVey was probably a Mason.

When Mason’s take the oath, their heart becomes one of stone operated by Satan. Their heart is spiritually hardened so that no matter what you try to explain to them, they cannot hear. The only way to deal with such a problem is to give them a renewed heart or a completely new heart. This may sound strange to most, but the spoken word of Yah can renew a heart. It can be done by anointed people in the deliverance and healing ministry.

There is a satanic ritual during every full moon. Many rituals involve a large circle with the upside down star of David in the center.

When a hexagram symbol is found at a satanic worship site, it means that a human sacrifice has taken place.

Most Satanists trace their roots back to a ceremony called the “Black Mass”. This is associated with the Roman Catholic worship service. Many seek power by reversing (pagan) Christian ceremonies and rituals.

Many occult groups get involved with necrophilia, (having sex with dead people).

Sometimes for rituals, participants will eat pages of the bible and vomit them up later on the bible, to desecrate the word of Adonai.

In brotherhood meetings it is a regular ritual to recite the Lord’s Prayer backwards while doing other rituals and incantations. It is however a big part of their Roman Catholic Black Mass ritual. It is also common for Satanists to steal holy water from the Roman Catholic Church, to use in their ceremonies.

Another sick ritual is described as tying a witch between two trees and having members urinate on her, and then rape her; both male and females having oral sex with her, licking up the fluids as an end result. All this to receive power from their master, “Lord of the fly’s”.

In some Satanic church rituals, people cut off their finger at the second knuckle and give it as a sacrifice.

It is common practice for women to lay on the altar and have sex with Satan himself, or a representative of his spiritual kingdom in the form of Baphomet, the horned goat.

Satanic church members drink each others blood during rituals.

The broomsticks and witches hats were symbols used in rituals, and it is believed that these objects transform the sexual energy released during orgasm, into psychic energy.

Santeria Satanists (mostly from Mexico), use voodoo dolls and animal hearts in their rituals. They worship over 600 different deities, and use human sacrifices. According to them, the thigh bone is the most precious part of a human being, and they will kill people just for the thigh bone. They boil human and animal blood, hearts, brains and human feces together, and drink the brew to make them invincible. None of their rituals are done symbolically. They use real blood and real human sacrifices. The priests are initiated with a baptism of real blood.

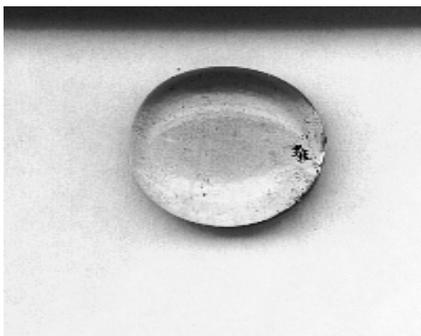

SACRIFICES

An average sized coven of approximately 15-25 members will have about ten live human sacrifices a year. Many of these human sacrifices will be those who try to leave the coven or those who come in to learn about the coven and then decide not to proceed. These sacrifices are always marked with 666 somewhere on the body, (usually on the leg). They will use about 15-20 dead babies a year for rituals. They will use about ten live babies a year in their rituals, depending on how available they are through their coven nurses and how many breeders they have going.

Human sacrifices at meetings are sometimes simply names drawn out of a hat. They are all willing to die for Satan. and willingly allow themselves to be sacrificed. In most cases, they are not even tied down on the altar, as they have the priest stick a ceremonial knife in their heart. Sometimes, if a male witch is dissatisfied with his sex mate/partner, he will have her name drawn for sacrifice. That is the only way coven dedicated husbands and bride mates of Satan can be separated. They are Satan's partners for life in a similar manner of marriage vows. The soul ties are forever, and if one quits a coven, the other is not permitted to have sex with another until he or she dies. The only exception is if their partners name is drawn for sacrifice. Sacrifices include real human and animal blood, hearts, tails, intestines, thigh bones, etc.

Most occult group-brotherhood-coven members, eat the raw flesh of the dead sacrifice to obtain supposed ultimate knowledge and power.

SYMBOLS:

Dagger with Baphomet (goats head) on upside down cross.

Spider web. Tiny spider with web in a plastic cast.

Backward question-marks are occultic.

Baphomet (the horned hunter) is a Satanic symbol with the body of a man and a woman, the head of a goat, wings of an angel, a black and a white crescent moon, cloven hooves and is depicted as seated between heaven and earth. (Matthew 25:31-33)

DID YOU KNOW?

One of the reasons Satanic worshipers use the goat head as one of their symbols is because Messiah is the lamb of El Shaddai, so the goat is the exact opposite of the lamb.

Paper mache masks of various animals, (eg. goat heads, pigs), are frequently used in satanic worship.

The size of these head masks determine the persons level of authority in the church/coven. Some people are killed so that their facial skin can be peeled off and used to make a mask for satanic rituals. Real goat skulls are frequently used by the master.

The pentagram (a five pointed star) is an occultic symbol.

Satanists often leave a copper penny behind after a human sacrifice has taken place. This is said to be the value of a human life in their eyes.

Many satanic priests wear clerical collars to get peoples trust.

The hexagram symbol, the upside down star of David in a circle, is commonly used in satanic churches.

The Druids believe that black cats are reincarnations of the evil dead, and were possessed with supernatural power and knowledge.

The gutless Satanic cults are extremely secretive. Few written records of membership are usually kept, and code names are used instead of real names. Witches and warlocks each have secret code numbers for their names, eg: egi23875.

These Satanists have infected all areas of society, and are part of the coming "New World Order". They are well educated; they are among our ministers, police, government, medical fields, businesses, lawyers, health food stores are major, martial arts schools, restaurants, etc.. Most of them attend local churches and are considered good citizens and good godly people. This is all done, of course, to cover up their real mission, which is to infest the world population with evil and get control of it. They lead double lives as the secret agents written about in many novels. They are masters of deception.

The stores selling satanic ritual materials, books, etc., usually have incense burning which is associated with occult objects.

Amateur witches frequently use mirrors to establish communication with the spirit world.

Anton LaVey did not intend to found a new religion as such. He established rituals, but there was no literal worship of Satan, since Satan was not believed to literally exist. He thought he just organized humanity's ancient rebellion against YHVH.

Wicca (wiccans/white witches) believe in levels of consciousness. WICCA stands for "World International Council Of Covens Association". They are both esoteric and pantheistic in their beliefs. They believe in mother goddess (nature) and the horned hunter. They refer to their practice as, "white magic". Often, they to, (like satanists), do rituals in the nude. At the end of all rituals, they hold up a dagger and pledge to mother goddess in the name of the horned hunter.

Jane Mansfield, the movie-star was a Satanist.

Some claim Albert Einstein was a Satanist.

Jacques Dei Molay, the head of the "Knights of Templar" (a satanist), was burned at the stake Mar. 19/1314 by the King of France. Before his death he cursed Pope Clement the fifth, who had denied any association of the Catholic church with the Knights Templar, and the King of France, King Philip the Fair. This became known as the Jacques de Molay curse.

Jim Morrison and the Doors were Satanic worshippers.

John Lennon told of mystical experiences as a teenager, when looking in the mirror his face used to contort and change and he would go in a trance he said that took him out into "alpha". Yoko Ono said that the Beatles were like "mediums", they weren't conscious of all they were saying, the words just seemed to come through them.

Keith Richards of the "Rolling Stones" said their songs came instantaneously like an inspiration at a seance.

Some occultic heavy metal artists are: Ozzy Osborne, Iron Maiden, Warfare, AC/DC, Danzig, Kiss, Hell, Slayer, WASP, King Diamond, Black Sabbath, Metallica, Motley Crue, David Lee Roth, and Marilyn Manson.

Little Richard, the homo-sexual, identified Satan as the source of his inspiration.

The folk singer Joni Mitchell said her spirit guide made her creative.

John Denver used to worship himself in front of a mirror like John Lennon. John Denver used to get his inspiration from his Guru, "Muktananda".

Real Angels used to protect the homes of Believers are often called "link angels" by witches.

People should know that with one simple incantation from a witch demons can be assigned to every member of a church. The purpose being that the demon will prevent them from hearing any bad thoughts about Satan from teachers or leaders. Though not demonized, the people hear voices telling them that Satan is not to be feared or learned about. The fact that many churches around us today are dead and in-effective, is proof that the Satanists and false prophets, (both on the same team), are doing a very good job.

Most Satanists, Mormons, Jesuits, and Freemasons, don't realize that their satanic belief system all stems from Cabbala. Cabbala is the origin of all Luciferian worship, whether it is directly called Baal worship, or disguised as Roman Catholicism. Cabbala is one of the main books from which Satanists and all other occult and secret societies get their fundamental understanding.

Many things that the Roman Catholics and some Protestant churches do, can be seen likewise in Satanism. Many of the rituals, customs, holidays, etc., that the Catholic church use, are also used in covens, simply because of their same origin. Even the colors of Satanism can be seen in the Catholic church: the black candles, the black robes of the nuns and priests, the scarlet robes of Cardinals, etc.. The following is a list of similarities between pagan holidays of the Roman Catholics and Satanism: Feast of Saturnalia (Christmas), Easter (Ishtar), Lent, St. Valentines Day, Halloween (all saints day), and New Years, etc. Heathen rituals and items of worship that are similar are: black mass, sprinkling baptism, salt, worship of phallus symbols, holy water, the cross, etc.

The word Satan means "adversary", "to lie in wait" "to oppose"

It is estimated that by the ninth century BC there were already over 65,000 different gods worshipped.

During the time between 1400 BC-400 AD Persians, Indians, Romans and Greeks worshipped the god "Mithras"

Some suggest there are more than 450 identified satanic groups in the United States alone, but most of these groups have no official organization or headquarters and don't publish any information or statistics.

Gurus are all vegetarians.

The popular fantasy role playing game of the early 2000's (Dungeons and Dragons), is another device Satan uses to get at children.

Salt is used literally in many Satanic rituals, whereas in the Bible, salt is always used symbolically.

The word "occult" means "hidden". A cult is considered any religious group that has split away from the mainline religions.

The devils ultimate goal is to demonize us all. When you consider all the gay people, new age believers, alcoholics, drug addicts, cult groups, occult groups etc. and all those who are not followers of Yahveh, you can understand why he is called the god of this world. It is our "free will" that makes us responsible for going along with the flesh and unless our "free will" is guided by the Ruach, he will take full advantage of our, "if it feels good, do it" attitude as long as we let him. His influence is growing at an astounding rate and he will control this world on earth until Yeshua comes back.

Lilith

Lilith is a complex figure. Her image differs from culture to culture. Some myths say she was the left hand of the goddess Inanna and helped in the worship of the Temples, participating in Tantrik rites with temple women. She was known as the whore, prostitute of men. In the Talmud, she is talked about as the "winged demon" of the night. Other legends claim she was the beautiful first woman who shared the Garden Of Eden with Adam rather than the Biblical Eve. Some say that the "Queen of Sheba in the Kabbala, the Zohar, and Arabic legends," is identical with the Near Eastern goddess Lilith. She is said to be associated with the concubine of Abraham, Hagar, the Egyptian. His son Ishmael, having been begotten on the Black stone of the Kabah, became the ancestor of the Arab peoples. In the Hebrew mysticism of the Kabbala, Lilith is associated with the lunar position on the Qliphotic Tree, the so-called world of shells that contain the “negative” and dark energies.

Many Canadians and Americans are familiar with the name “Lilith” in regards to a rock concert tour over the last years, called “Lilith Fair”, headed by Sarah McLaughlan and other New Age occult worshippers.

We also see that name used as the wife of Fraser Crain on the TV program. The occult has infiltrated Hollywood, including the music scene. If you have watched closely, you know that demonic occult programs are on our TV screens everyday under the guise of entertainment.
