FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

No Kill Louisville Hosts The Chocolate 5k Fundraiser
No Kill Louisville and NR Road Racing presents a chocolatey good time!

Louisville, Kentucky — No Kill Louisville will host a 5k fundraiser on March 30, 2014 at Tom Sawyer Park. The event will raise money for a variety of No Kill Louisville programs and services, which include foster/adoptions, a Pet Food Bank for low-income members of the community, low-cost spay/neuter vouchers, and more.

Runners, joggers, walkers and leashed dogs are all invited to participate, though walkers and dogs will start after those running or jogging. All chocolate is compliments of NR Road Racing. It is not mandatory for you take part, but you are more than welcome to have a sweet treat on us! There will be chocolate stations set up along the three mile course and of course, some more at the end!

The race begins at 9 a.m. at Tom Sawyer Park (3000 Freys Hill Rd). Registration is $30 per person when purchased before February 27, $35 per person between February 28 and March 29, and $40 per person the day of.
For teams of 4 or more, registration is $25 per person when purchased before February 27, $30 per person between February 28 and March 29, and $35 per person the day of.

For more information on The Chocolate 5K Fundraiser, visit www.nokill-louisville.com

No Kill Louisville representatives are available for interview. Adoptable dogs are also available for on-camera appearances for broadcast.

###

ABOUT NO KILL LOUISVILLE

No Kill Louisville is a registered envisions our community as a place where no adoptable pet or feral cat is killed, regardless of resources, economics, or politics. Founded in 2010, No Kill Louisville has worked toward this vision through the support and creation of programs of services, collaboration, and advocacy. For more information, visit www.nokill-louisville.com. Find us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/nokilllouisville or Twitter at www.twitter.com/NoKill_LVille.