MASS READINGS FOR THE 17th. SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading – Genesis 18:20-32: “See how I am presuming to speak to my Lord, though I am but dust and ashes!”
Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 138: “Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.”
Second Reading – Colossians 2:12-14: “You were buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.”
Gospel – Luke 11:1-13: “I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.”

St. Therese of Lisieux described prayer as a “surge of the heart”. It is more than just words in our heads. It is truly sharing with God our deepest longings, joys, sorrows, and feelings. This is the type of prayer which Jesus teaches his disciples.

He tells us to call God “Father”, an intimate term, and to remember that God is holy. He tells us to speak to God about his Kingdom and his will for us. We also speak of “our daily bread”, our needs. We ask for mercy and the ability to show mercy. And for God’s presence in times of trial.

He also tells them to be persistent. Why? Prayer is not meant to “change God’s mind” but to draw us into union with the divine. Not giving up on prayer keeps the line of communication open, allowing God to speak to us also. This can help us see things in a different light, or lead us in a new direction, or soften our hearts. Or maybe we just need to be patient.

Prayer is meant to break us out of our closed mindedness. We call to the God who is both near enough that we can call him Father and yet so different from us. God is a mystery to us, but through prayer we can gain insight into his nature. And then we can learn to depend on him for all that we need.

GRACIAS!

Our church home needs attention. The Altar of our beloved Lord and Savior is dusty and needs regular cleaning as does the rest of the church. To address this, we will be opening the church on Saturday mornings at 10 am and request that volunteers from our church family come in to do some cleaning.

We are blessed to have a large church so several volunteers will be needed. THANK YOU in advance for your help.
