Vision

The Canadian Positive People Network (CPPN) / Réseau Canadien Des Personnes Séropositives (RCPS) is an independent network for and by people living with HIV and HIV co-infections in Canada. We exist as a people's network to represent the needs of all persons and communities affected by HIV and HIV co-infections.

Mission

As a people's network, the Canadian Positive People Network (CPPN) / Réseau Canadien Des Personnes Séropositives (RCPS) is at the forefront of the HIV response in Canada.

We help ensure the movement is coordinated nationally, provincially, regionally, and locally to benefit the affected people and communities, and that we are connected with the global HIV response.

Our aim is to work with AIDS service organizations, service providers, partner organizations, policy makers, and funders so that all persons and communities affected by HIV and HIV co-infections are engaged, empowered and have access to holistic supports and improved social determinants of health.

The principles and values of CPPN/RCPS are:

- o Dignity
- o Equity
- o Healthy Living
- o The Greater Involvement and Meaningful Engagement of Persons Living with HIV and HIV co-infection (GIPAMEPA)
- o Freedom from stigma and discrimination

Form 4031 – Appendix B”

General Membership - Individual Members that live with HIV/AIDS will have voice and vote at all annual, general, public meetings on any issues and concerns.

Associate Organizational Membership - Our organizational supporters who agree with and support the purpose of the corporation that have paid a fee to obtain that status level of membership. They have the right to voice but no vote at general public meetings.

Supporter Membership - People who are not living with HIV/AIDS who are individuals of the general public who agree and support the purpose of the corporation and have paid a fee to obtain that status level. They have voice also but no vote at general public meetings.
