MOHAAYED (Intikhab) 3 b c

Trainer: Kevin Prendergast, Ire

Raced twice as a juvenile, this scopey son of top class miler Intikhab looks one of the most exciting young horses in Ireland. Mohaayed improved significantly from his debut fifth to subsequent G2 winner Raydara in July when hacking up in a mile maiden at Navan almost three months later. Going off at 20-1, he was given a confident ride by jockey Chris Hayes, who had the colt in the middle of the 18-runner field early on. Mohaayed was forced to go wide to deliver a challenge but it made little difference, he made smooth progress to make his presence felt with about a quarter of a mile to go. He got to the lead a furlong out, and ran out a very easy 4 ½-length winner, despite coming off a true line and showing his inexperience in the closing stages.

Two Ballydoyle colts filled the places, 25-1 debutante Jinsha Lake taking second ahead of the odds-on favourite Giovanni Canaletto (who won a Leopardstown maiden by 6 ½ lengths some two weeks later). The race produced four other subsequent winners, and Mohaayed's performance must have been well above the average for an Irish maiden heat. He has been entered for the Irish 2,000 Guineas (G1) and Irish Derby (G1). His dam, Reyaada (Daylami), won over 7 furlongs as a juvenile and has also produced the useful filly Jamaayel (Shamardal), a 96-rated winner over 6 and 7 furlongs for Mohaayed's owner Hamdan Al Maktoum and trainer Kevin Prendergast.

Named after the famous women's right supporter, Richard Pankhurst made his debut at Newmarket in May. Popular in the betting ring, he was anything but amongst those who saw him in the pre-parade ring. Sure, he was a really nice colt, but he ticked all the wrong boxes on his first day at school. He was all over the place. Thus it was a pleasant surprise to see him finish fourth, beaten under three lengths behind Peacock. Three weeks later, Richard Pankhurst was ready for his second run, and it was not in another maiden event. He was stepped right up in class to contest the 7-furlong Chesham Stakes (LR) at Royal Ascot. Much better behaved, and markedly fitter too, he found plenty of improvement to win the contest. William Buick rode a confident race on the chestnut colt, holding him up and delivering him with a powerful finish approaching the final furlong. Richard Pankhurst swept to the front and drew off for a facile 3 3/4-length win over the strong Irish trained duo Toscanini and Dick Whittington. Impressive stuff indeed, but we were not to see him again in 2014. The son of Raven's Pass was sold to Hamdan Al Maktoum in August, and has since been transferred to Godolphin. He remains with Gosden, and seems likely to get William Buick on board again in 2015.

Richard Pankhurst is the first foal out of Mainstay (Elmaamul), a mile winning filly who is a sister to Prix Daphnes (G3) winner Lateen Sails, stayed 10 furlongs. This colt should also get 10 furlongs, but he also has the speed to make his mark over a mile.
