

Norsk Høstfest

Date to be announced

“Only one who travels finds a new path.” – Norwegian Proverb

Founded in 1978, the Norwegian Autumn Festival has become North America’s largest Scandinavian Festival. On hiatus during the pandemic, Norsk Høstfest makes a return in 2022 with plans for a bigger and better event. Dates and entertainment will be finalized in the months to come.

We look forward to an incredible line-up of headliners in the Great Hall of Vikings, where past entertainers have included favourites like Daniel O’Donnell, Charley Pride, The Gaither’s, Jeff Foxworthy and so many more. Stages throughout feature favourites for music, comedy and culture and of course then there’s “The Food”.

Stay-tuned for a complete itinerary and pricing once details are made available by the event committee.
