

President Message

This summer was better than last.
There was some sickness and lots of health.

Many of our members travelled the world, while others stayed close and enjoyed the heat. Some hunkered down next to an A/C.

We're working on some exciting events, and I'll let Francis tell you the details.

As we head into fall, stay safe. Think about our members and avoid pitfalls.

Fredericton Night Market and Dinner at the Palate

Fourteen of us met for a wonderful evening out in the downtown. A few of us went for a walk in our very vibrant Thursday night market. Warning, if you do go be prepared to eat! The choices of foods from many different countries are such a treat. You will also find live music, many artisans, beer and much more. If you have yet to do this, take some time and go down. You have until September 8. It will close for the season then.

Afterwards, we gathered at the wonderful Palate Restaurant. The food here has always been one of Fredericton's favourites and that is why they have been around for more than 20 years. From seeing the empty plates, everyone enjoyed the food.

Message from the Club Manager

Oh September, you little sneak, you came so fast! As we sit back and wonder where the summer went, take a moment, and reflect how, hopefully, wonderful it was. Maybe you got to feel a bit "normal" and put COVID on the backburner! Maybe you went away, maybe you spent a lot of time with family and friends... maybe you just enjoyed being out in the fresh air. Whatever your maybe, I hope it was unforgettable.

As we begin getting back into the fall routines, I have been working on some fun new activities as well as a return to old favourites (with a twist).
I'm hoping we can get back into almost pre-COVID style events, fingers-crossed!

For more details, please see the attached page that will explain a bit more on the events/activities.

As it has always been, we welcome you, along with any friends you wish to take out to any event, unless otherwise stated.
As we begin to move forward, we will begin to try to recruit new members.

Have a wonderful September, and I hope to see some of you soon.

Francis Perry
