

Kentucky Veterans Hall of Fame Scholarship Application - 2023

Kentucky Veterans Hall of Fame (KVHOF) scholarships are open only to descendants (i.e. children, grandchildren or great-grandchildren, etc.) of KVHOF Alumni. Applicant must be a high school junior or senior or a student currently enrolled in a vocational school, college or university. Our scholarships are available for postsecondary educational pursuits in all vocational/trade schools as well as community college or university level institutions.

To apply, the student must complete the personal information below, along with the following additional information regarding education plans and financial needs:

- 1). A photograph suitable for publication.
- 2). A biographical summary/resume to include school performance, school accomplishments and involvements along with any community, civic, church or other activities.
- 3). A clear statement of your academic objective and the school you plan to attend.
- 4). A clear statement of financial needs (to include your efforts to achieve the financial need).
- 5). Since we are an organization recognizing and honoring veterans, we are requiring a brief story about your relative who is a member of the KVHOF.
- 6). We request you attend our annual induction ceremony to personally receive your scholarship check. If you cannot attend, we request a short video about you that could be presented during the ceremony.
- 7). To ensure readability of your information; application must be either typed or computer generated.
