Sanctuary Lamp: - Week of Sept. 19th was by Cécile & Albert Furet.

Due to the pandemic, the sheets were not displayed and therefore not many reserved their week. For that reason, I have omitted it for the weeks that were opened and forgot all about going back to it. I must apologise for this omission for those who had paid and reserved a week. However, you can be sure that the Lord remembered and appreciated your presence near the tabernacle for your chosen week. His blessings will certainly be bestowed on you and yours.

 Bishop LeGatt Video Message – The 2021 CCCB Plenary - Discussions on the Continued Path Towards Truth and Reconciliation

This week, September 20-25, will take place (virtually) the annual plenary assembly of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB). Each year, all the Catholic bishops of Canada gather, in collegiality, to pray together and to discuss the issues at hand for the Church in Canada, discerning together the ways in which the Holy Spirit is Calling our Church to continue its journey within our society. This year, an issue of particular importance and significance will of course be that of reconciliation with Indigenous peoples. During this plenary assembly, discussions will cover topics such as the December meeting of Indigenous peoples who live in Canada with Pope Francis in Rome, a future papal visit to Canada, and the concrete action needed from within our Church to humbly and authentically continue in the paths of truth and reconciliation. Please pray, in a very special way September 20-25, for all of these, our Church leaders, as they consider the promptings of the Lord and the issues at hand, especially within our continued context of pandemic, as our bishops continue to lead and shepherd our Church. Please pray that their hearts would be open to the promptings of the Holy Spirit, being faithful instruments of the Will of God, and that the Lord would continue to move in powerful ways through our local and national Church. Saint Joseph, patron of Canada, pray for us!

 Marriage Tips

Happiness can be fleeting. Selfless love has the potential to carry a couple over the long haul and bring abiding joy. Is there some way you can be selfless today? Don't aim for every day, just today—one day at a time.

 September 26, 2021 - 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.” (Mark 9:41)

We are made in God's image and likeness. We tend to forget this. When you look at others, do you see the face of Jesus in them? When others look at you, do they see the face of Jesus in you? When we realize that all lives matter to God, then gratitude and generosity become easier. Why? Because that's the way we are made! We are one Body of Christ; when one of us is hurting, all of us feel the pain.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time B – September 26th, 2021

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation - September 30th.

In July, the Government of Canada announced that we would now celebrate National Day for Truth and Reconciliation on September 30th. The Canadian government explained that they are “committed to reconciliation and ensuring that the tragic history and ongoing legacy of residential schools is never forgotten.”

*A Prayer of the Faithful for the Children of the Former Indian Residential Schools, and for Reconciliation between Indigenous and Non-Indigenous People:

“As we embark on the National Truth and Reconciliation Week, may residential school survivors and their families have the strength and courage to share their experiences. May we open our hearts to their stories and may their words move us to take another step on the road to reconciliation. Let us pray to the Creator Lord.”

Let us continue to ask the Holy Spirit to guide us on this journey.
