To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of Richard Childers and Walter Church with FleetTax Recovery Specialists. They provide professional tax refunds and credits for distribution companies, both big and small.

Richard approached me in the spring 2019, and offered their expertise to help QCD Services secure unclaimed tax refunds specific to our trucking operations. They offered us a turnkey approach with no risk, no cost and with minimal commitment to their service. He believed with the size of our fleet, we would be able to enjoy some very substantial refunds from what he called new and recurring revenue.

His partner, Walter Church completed all the paperwork in just a few days after reviewing several years of required documents. After gathering the necessary data, they prepared and filed our tax claim. To our delight, FleetTax came through with helping us reclaim six figures in tax refunds for QCD Services. As a result, we have hired FleetTax to manage our yearly tax refund claims going forward.

We highly recommend FleetTax Recovery Specialists as they will provide exactly what they promise, new and recurring profit for any eligible company. Had they not approached us with this opportunity, QCD Services would not be enjoying these very material streams of revenue.

Sincerely yours,
