Ponderings From The Pastor

"SEEKING AN EASTER BLESSING" (ABOUT DOING WHAT IS IMPORTANT)

*Where there is no vision, the people perish;
but he who keeps the law, he is blessed. -- Proverbs 29:18 (MKJV)*

OR, AS THE AMPLIFIED BIBLE puts the same verse: "Where there is no vision [no revelation of God and God's word], the people are unrestrained; but happy and blessed is he who keeps the law [of God]."

I start with this well-known and often-quoted verse from Proverbs because we are now in the EASTER SEASON!!...and the worship refrain continues to ring out for fifty days until Pentecost: "Alleluia, Christ Is Risen!...He is Risen INDEED!" It's the time when, each year, we celebrate resurrection and new life. We remember and celebrate God's victory in/through Christ over death, fear, hate, rejection, narrow-mindedness, self-righteousness, hypocrisy—and whatever else!—keeps believers like you and me in the dark...in the tomb: blind, without vision, without revelation...and therefore without hope.

Easter IS a revelation—recall that a revelation is a divine disclosure, a revealing, even a surprise—like a stone rolled away revealing an empty tomb! If Proverbs has merit (and it surely does), then lack of vision is slow death ("perishing"); and then by contrast, hearing/doing God's purpose ("keeping the law") is a blessing. It's fullness of life and hope! Easter = ultimate disclosure of great blessing and a God-given happiness. Easter = HOPE.

This Easter season the congregation of St. Paul UCC will be taking the first concrete steps in a specific kind of hope-seeking. We'll be actively pursuing blessing and happiness, newness and fullness of life—anti-tomb life!—through DIVINE disclosure! This hope-seeking, this blessing quest, is what I have been calling "intentional vision discernment"...and what better time to actively launch it than Easter!

Now, I know that many of our members have been wondering about all this, thinking or asking questions like "What's going on?" and "What exactly is this 'vision discernment' thing?" And, "Why do we need it?" I have tried to answer these and other questions in a general way, often here in The Epistle. So let me now cut to the chase: in the next couple of months your church Council we be making a decision about a specific vision process to recommend to the congregation. These days, with the majority of U. S. Christian churches in moderate to severe decline, there are many options; St. Paul's Council will recommended ONE such vision process to the church. They will make this decision by the end of May.

Then, the congregation will have the chance to learn all about the recommended vision process, ask questions, and finally to “authorize” the process at our June congregational meeting. YOU will formally “launch” our much-needed vision quest! This is essentially the “WHAT” in “what’s happening.” Here’s a quick review and reminder of “WHY” this is much needed; the following paragraph is a quote from one of the vision processes your leaders I and are keenly considering for SPUCC:

“Mainline Protestant churches everywhere are declining. The pews are emptier on Sunday morning. Neighborhoods have changed. Once-proud buildings show signs of wear and tear, and the cost to maintain them pulls money away from outreach and ministry. Decline does not necessarily mean your congregation will close. But the old mission and vision – the one that worked 30, 50, or even 100 years ago – no longer fits your circumstances. It’s time to ask, ‘What is God calling us to do and to be in this time and this place?’ ”

There is the bottom-line question, the BIG QUESTION: What is God calling us to do and to be in this time and this place? Vision discernment is about finding real, motivating, actionable, and very specific answers—“big picture” (strategic, long-term) answers to this question, for this church, at this time. And before we go any further, there’s one key thing to remember about vision discernment: whatever process we choose does not force change on our (or any) congregation. SPUCC as a whole has to want it, to seek and then make needed change. The vision process provides the information, the steps, and the training to help members and leaders come together to make wise and realistic decisions about the future. Or, as it’s put by one of the main resources we’re considering (and I LOVE this!): DISCERNING GOD’S VISION HELPS CHURCHES CHOOSE THEIR FUTURE, INSTEAD OF LETTING IT GET CHOSEN FOR THEM.

What might such a process look like? In general we’d be working with some “outside” resource people: coaches and assessors, highly-trained (and practiced) in helping churches move through the steps involved in seeing the “big picture” and in answering that BIG QUESTION above. Most vision and assessment processes include 3-4 stages or phases...

- An onsite visit: data gathering, e.g. interviews with leaders, demographics, tour of the building and grounds, structure review, possibly surveys.
- A special team (“Vision Team”): receives a full, detailed report of all the above and learns to interpret the data, in order to see and share the “big picture” (they are trained for this process).
- The Vision Team helps ALL members listen to ALL the congregational voices, and then do active spiritual discernment: PRAYER, BIBLE STUDY, LISTENING FOR GOD’S VOICE and DIRECTION – this happens in small groups, home meetings, “focus groups”, etc.
- An All-Church gathering (usually with a dinner): the congregation would consider and make a BIG (“strategic”, long-term) MAJOR DECISION about what God is calling the church to do and be—to practically answer that BIG QUESTION.
- Once that answer is found and “owned” the coaches help the pastor and leaders to find and use available mission planning resources, which help the congregation “connect the dots.”

If your congregation can answer “yes” to three or more of the following, it may be time for a New Beginning:

- Less than 70 in worship, or more than 70 in worship but significant decline for a decade
- Wrestling with future vision for the church
- Significant building issues
- Aging membership
- Changing neighborhood
- Trouble paying bills and/or paying off a loan
- Currently in interim time of transition

*An Excerpt From One Possible Vision Resource
(Which are St. Paul’s “yes’s”?)*

So...that’s what will be happening, and why. You will be receiving much more information as we move forward, and the congregation is asked to approve and then LAUNCH into EASTER (and Pentecost—the season of the Spirit!) with this great, crucial vision quest. I will wrap up for now with a few notable quotes from various leadership sources, and then a closing thought from the Bible.

"We don't drift in good directions. We discipline and prioritize ourselves there."

— Andy Stanley, The Principle of the Path: How to Get from Where You Are to Where You Want to Be

A simple life is not seeing how little we can get by with—that's poverty—but how efficiently we can put first things first...When you're clear about your purpose and your priorities, you can painlessly discard whatever does not support these, whether it's clutter in your cabinets or commitments on your calendar.

— Victoria Moran, Lit From Within: Tending Your Soul For Lifelong Beauty

"Most of us spend too much time on what is urgent and not enough time on what is important."

— Stephen R. Covey

And finally, from GOD through ISAIAH...spoken to a people who needed hope at a crucial time of loss and disorientation (the Hebrews, facing the Babylonian exile—the loss of their country, their faith, their very identity, and all they held dear): "Do not cling to events of the past or dwell on what happened long ago. Look! I am doing a new thing; now it sprouts up; don't you recognize it? I'm making a way in the wilderness, steams of water in the desert! -- Isaiah 43.18-19 (GNT, CEB)

HAPPY EASTER! – Pastor Barry*

SCOUTING NEWS

The Cubbies are busy working on learning some outdoor skills. They have spent some time doing some small hikes at the park, learning about animals, tying knots, and how to take care of the world we live in.

The Troop is busy on finishing up their Citizenship in the Community merit badge. They are working on a presentation about North College Hill. They have some day hikes planned and a couple of camp outs in the near future.

The crew is finalizing plans for our summer trip. They just finished taking their Weather Hazards Training to be more prepared for weather situations. They will be making reservations for camp sites in the very near future.

Nursery School

Happy Spring!!!!

The children are so excited to be outside again. Our school year is going so fast.

The three and four year olds are anxiously waiting for the Farmer to visit St. Paul on April 10 and April 13th with his animals. So don't be surprised if you pass the school and see baby goats and sheep in the yard.

The stage will be up in fellowship hall for the five year olds to practice, practice, practice their end of year play.

Thank you for all your support on our basket raffle. Our carnival was a success. The children have a fun time. This is one fundraiser that makes my heart shine knowing how much it can help a child attend pre-school.

Registration for next school year is still going on. If you know anyone looking for a preschool, please tell them to call the school office. 931-9062.
