CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

...News for Pre-K through 6th Grade

OUR KIDS ARE IMPORTANT!

Parents! Sunday School for kids will continue through the summer with Christian crafts, videos, stories, songs, puppetry, etc. Children preschool- 6th grade are welcome.

Our main summer event will be BIBLE SCHOOL - "TO MARS and BEYOND!" The theme this year is based on Ephesians 3:20 and includes a mascot, EP3:20.

Much excitement is going around about our Sunday, June 30 picnic in Pitsburg Park. The kids will participate in this service to help kick off Bible School. The usual great worship, music, food, games, etc will be included. We are especially looking for to the rocket launch!

To Mars and Beyond Bible School actually begins on Wednesday, July 10 and continues for 4 more Wednesday's: July 17, July 24, July 31, and August 7 from 6-8pm. Each week will include stories, music, puppets, food, games, and crafts. This theme, To Mars and Beyond, will be so much fun. The leaders and helpers can't wait! But, guess what, more helpers are always appreciated! Let Marge (623-2544) know if you are willing to help one or more Wednesday. All families will receive FREE CD of the Bible School songs. Register online or at the church anytime.

President's Perspective

Trinity Family,

Enjoy your summer. All of you be safe out there.

We are still dealing with a few repair items. Mostly the light on the outside cross and a possible roof leak.

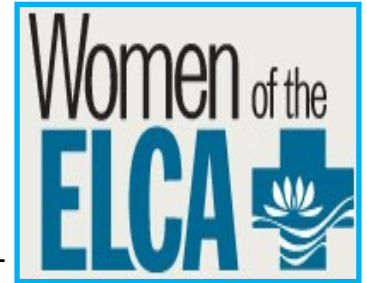

Council members. It is hard to conduct a meeting when I worry if we will even have a quorum present to have a meeting.

May God bless this congregation,

WELCA News for June

Dear Sisters in Christ,

Yea! Summertime is upon us, however as I am preparing this article I am wondering if the rain is going to let up enough to get the fields planted. Summertime has always been my favorite time of the year. I love the hot days and the warm nights. As I've gotten a little wiser over the years I have traded in the baby oil for sun screen. Another school year has come to an end. My two favorite baseball teams are here in Ohio. Cookouts, gardening, star gazing, pool time, outdoor concerts, hiking, canoeing—What are your favorite summertime activities? There is no formal meeting this month. Our Secret Sister program is on hold currently. We will discuss this program during the organizational meeting this summer.

From our Pastor .....

<sup>3</sup> I thank my God every time I remember you, <sup>4</sup> constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, <sup>5</sup> because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now. <sup>6</sup> I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ. (Philippians 1:3-6)

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from our Lord Jesus Christ, amen.

Rain, rain go away, come again some other day! I think this is the rainiest spring and early summer I've ever seen. Someone asked me if I had gotten my garden planted yet. I have to admit I can't even keep up with the mowing this year, let alone tilling and planting. There's too much rain! When we do have a dry day or two I have to get on the mower and there just isn't enough dry weather to do mowing, tilling, and planting... I know I'm not alone in this. One of our farmers recently told me he had only been able to get into the field for planting 1 single day and as I write this we're only 10 days from June...

Regardless of the rain, we can never grow weary for the one who created you also sustains you and will continue to sustain you no matter what happens. Rain, snow, sleet, nor dark of night can't stop God from loving you. Wait, what? Is God like the US Postal Service? Not a chance! God actually delivers! Seriously, I know when summertime finally gets here many of us will go our own ways for a season. You have every right to some well-earned time off to recreate. I hope you find something you're passionate about that gives you joy and purpose in life. As you go about your summer vacations and taking some time to relax, I know you'll take the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ with you. Just because you're on vacation doesn't mean you get to stop doing the mission of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church. In fact, while on vacation or working at your job or even just living your life in the real world, God has placed you right exactly where God wants you to be in order to complete the good work He began in you. Everywhere you go you are an ambassador for God's Kingdom. Everywhere you go you preach the Gospel. Feel free to use your words, if necessary, but remember people will see what you do and how you do what you do long before they hear or care what you say.

I have a couple of other random thought for you this month. First, be safe in your comings and goings. I've already heard about a farmer in Urbana who was crushed to death under a piece of farm equipment this year. No matter if you farm or teach or push paper for a living, please slow down and be careful! Second, don't forget your Church as you dive into the busy summer season. We still need greeters, lectors, Sunday School Teachers and especially Teacher Helpers. We have up to 12-15 children in Sunday School some Sundays. When there's only one person signed up to teach it's not safe for our children. By law and according to our insurance policy, we need at least two adults with our children. Teacher's helpers are desperately needed to watch and play with the pre-school age kids. Please help us out over the summer by signing up at the Communications table across from the Church Office. Finally, I'm still hoping someone will step up to coordinate our Family and Community Ministry Team. This involves setting up both fun fellowship activities like Carry-in meals and outings to fun events like maybe a Dragon's Baseball game. This is a super important ministry for strengthening our Church Family relationships. If you lament because our Church doesn't feel as close as it used to be, let's get back to doing many of the traditional things Churches have done to foster that closeness.

That's my rant for this month. May God continue to bless you and I'll see you at Church!

In Christ's Love,
Pastor Mel

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

God's work. Our hands.

Spring 2019

“For if you keep silence at such a time as this,
relief and deliverance will rise for the Jews from another quarter, but you and your father's family will perish. Who knows?
Perhaps you have come to royal dignity for just such a time as this.”

– Esther 4:14

Dear Friends in Christ,

For such a time. The world has changed and is changing. But what shapes us as Lutherans is being God's beloved people gathered around word and sacraments. In Christ through the Spirit, God has invited us into a deeply intimate and loving relationship with God and with each other for such a time as this.

This is our time to tell the story of the church we are becoming, a church confident about who we are in Christ and what God is calling us to do. As I have said previously, if God wills that there be a witness to the gospel through the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), no force on earth, not even our own, can stop it.

As we gather in synod assemblies, I invite you to pray for one another and listen for God's will. Your prayers and discernment will be crucial as the assembly season culminates at the 2019 ELCA Churchwide Assembly in Milwaukee, Aug. 5-10. As part of our legislative business, we will be receiving and considering proposals from your synod assemblies. I hope you will have time and space to talk together, pray together and listen together as you consider resolutions and memorials before you. We need time for discernment.

This church continues to engage in God's reconciling work through Christ in the world. At the churchwide organization, the ELCA Church Council is overseeing implementation of this church's strategic plan, Future Directions 2025 (ELCA.org/future). Through this initiative, we're cultivating new leaders and revitalizing congregations. Thank you for your faithful commitment.

Thank you also for your generosity to Always Being Made New: The Campaign for the ELCA (ELCA.org/campaign). Your continued support is an example of all the ways we are church, we are Lutheran, we are church together and we are church for the sake of the world.

God's blessings to you as you gather as the living body of Christ. May you be guided by the Spirit as you do God's will for God's people for such a time.

With gratitude,

The Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton
Presiding Bishop

Dear Friends at Trinity Lutheran Church,

(March 1, 2019 letter:)

Thank you for your generous gift of 6 quilts for LWR's distribution overseas. These gifts of your hearts and hands are beautiful expressions of God's grace and love to people all around the world.

Last year, LWR and partners Children's Gift Ministry (CGM) and OLAM were busy distributing 28,000 School Kits in Honduras, to children whose families are vulnerable due to lack of access to the most basic necessities. Parents often have to choose between feeding their children and sending them to school. These Kit donations will help them get back to or stay in school, increasing their chances of breaking the chains of chronic poverty and avoiding the very real risk of gang involvement. In addition to being practical, these kits provide a source of comfort, security and hope to those who receive them.

(March 6, 2019 letter:)

I'm excited to be able to share some details about where some of your items traveled in the last year. Your donations departed our Maryland warehouse in late November of 2018.

LWR's partner for this shipment is IMA World Health, an organization that works to strengthen health systems, prevent and treat disease, promote nutrition and hygiene, respond to sexual and gender-based violence, and promote maternal and child health. This shipment of Mission Quilts and Personal Care Kits will serve an estimated 7,200 vulnerable women, men, and children in Port-de-Paix. Many of these families are affected by neglected tropical diseases and their lives disrupted by Hurricane Matthew in 2016 and more recently by the October 2018 earthquake.

(Additional March 6, 2019 letter:)

Your Mission Quilts donations departed our Marilyn warehouse in mid-December of 2018 and were sent to Iraq.

LWR's partner in Iraq is RNVDO, an organization partnering with the United Nations and others to coordinate relief efforts to those who are displaced; helping people who had fled and are returning home; and providing support to communities as they move toward early recovery and long-term health and sustainability. This shipment of Mission Quilts and Fabric Kits is serving nearly 22,000 people, providing life-saving warmth in the winter season and tools for learning a new trade along with hope for a bright future.

Continued blessings on your ministry!

Melanie W. Gibbons
Quilt & Kit Ministry Manager

PS: We are experiencing a technical error in the system that does not allow us to pull the shipment list that shows where your items are going in the world in the usual timeframe. While we are repairing that, please know all of your gifts are still going out to those who need them, and we hope to be able to let you know where as soon as possible!

Surprise!

Ohio! Yes, I'm in Ohio. An unexpected trip home to help my parents move has resulted in many blessings!

God's audacious bounty

- I was able to be with my extended family on Easter! We had fifty adults and twenty-eight children. Twenty of the children were 8 and under!
- I have been able to help Mom and Dad with their move. Forty-six years in one place. Raising kids, pigs and crops resulted in a lot of "stuff" to be sorted, distributed, sold or moved.
- Healthy good-byes. I have been able to spend quiet time on the farm saying my own good-byes. It's been a beautiful, bittersweet time.
- The reality of being able to do my work from most anywhere in the world continues to bless me. I have continued meeting with the global workers under my care as well as attend occasional video conferences.

Prayer Request from the "least of these":

I was traveling for a month in Central Asia and the Middle East. Two distinct, very different ministry areas yet I found the prayer requests coming from the children to be very similar. Will you join me in prayer?

- 11 year old boy: "Please pray that I would find a buddy." (this child is lonely and finding it difficult to meet boys in his neighborhood)
- 9 year old boy: "Please pray that I would be able to concentrate in school." (this child is struggling with paying attention to his school work)
- 11 year old boy: "Please pray that I will not get stuck thinking about things that I need to let God take care of." (this child struggles with obsessive compulsive thinking)

- 12 year old girl: "Please pray I have friends." (this child has significant developmental and cognitive disabilities and is lonely)
- 17 year old young man who is lonely and isolated. 90% of interaction with his peers is on-line. He is lonely and isolated.
- Many of my families are homeschooling families, some a combination: younger children go to school and older children are homeschooled. Pray for their parents. And I do mean parents. It is typical for both mom and dad to be involved. Even with the internet, homeschooling is difficult for many families and unlike the US where there are often co-opts for children to participate in for social interaction, most of the families I work with are isolated, the children having limited contact with peers.

Thank you for being a part of what God is doing!

10 Early Signs and Symptoms of Alzheimer's

Memory loss that disrupts daily life may be a symptom of Alzheimer's or other form of dementia. Alzheimer's is a brain disease that causes a slow decline in memory, thinking and reasoning skills. There are 10 warning signs and symptoms. If you notice any of them, don't ignore them. Schedule an appointment with your doctor.

1. Memory loss that disrupts daily life

One of the most common signs of Alzheimer's disease, especially in the early stage, is forgetting recently learned information. Others include forgetting important dates or events, asking for the same information over and over, and increasingly needing to rely on memory aids (i.e. reminder notes or electronic devices) or family members for things they used to handle on their own.

2. Challenges in planning or solving problems

Some people may experience changes in their ability to develop and follow a plan or work with numbers. They may have trouble following a familiar recipe or keeping track of monthly bills. They may have difficulty concentrating and take much longer to do things than they did before.

3. Difficulty completing simple tasks at home, at work, or at leisure

People with Alzheimer's often find it hard to complete daily tasks. Sometimes, people may have trouble driving to a familiar location, managing a budget at work or remembering the rules of a favorite game.

4. Confusion with time or place

People with Alzheimer's can lose track of dates, seasons and the passage of time. They may have trouble understanding something if it is not happening immediately. Sometimes they may forget where they are or how they got there.

5. Trouble understanding visual images and spatial relationships

For some people, having vision problems is a sign of Alzheimer's. They may have difficulty reading, judging distance and determining color or contrast, which may cause problems with driving.

6. New problems with words in speaking and writing

People with Alzheimer's may have trouble following or joining a conversation. They may stop in the middle of a conversation and have no idea how to continue or they may repeat themselves. They may struggle with vocabulary, have problems finding the right word or call things by the wrong name (i.e. calling a "watch" a "hand-clock").

7. Misplacing things and losing the ability to retrace steps

A person with Alzheimer's disease may put things in unusual places. They may lose things and be unable to go back over their steps to find them again. Sometimes, they may accuse others of stealing. This may occur more frequently over time.

8. Decreased or poor judgement

People with Alzheimer's may experience changes in judgement or decision-making. For example, they may use poor judgement when dealing with money (i.e. giving large amounts to telemarketers). They may pay less attention to grooming or keeping themselves clean.

9. Withdrawal from work or social activities

A person with Alzheimer's may start to remove themselves from hobbies, social activities, work projects or sports. They may have trouble keeping up with a favorite sports team or remembering how to complete a favorite hobby. They also may avoid social activities because of the changes they have experienced.

10. Changes in mood or personality

The mood and personalities of people with Alzheimer's can change. They can become confused, suspicious, depressed, fearful or anxious. They may be easily upset at home, at work, or with friends. If you notice any of the 10 Warning Signs don't ignore them. Schedule an appointment with your doctor.
