EXECUTIVE ORDER 0005

ANTI-CHARACTER ASSASSINATION LAW FOR OPPOSING PERSONAL BELIEFS

By virtue of the authority vested in me, by the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Dracul of 2017, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Throughout Dracul's existence there have been incidents where Draculians have attacked other Draculians, regarding their opposing personal beliefs, to the extent of committing slander, libel, and character assassination against those for refusal to conform to other views. These former actions have no place in Dracul and the blatant attempt to ruin reputations for opposing views will not be accepted by the majority in this community, including the Government.

These actions taken against others must never be tolerated nor allowed. Therefore, attempting to assassinate one's character for reasons of personal disagreement is hereby considered illegal and can result in citizenship revocation and expulsion from this Commonwealth. As Draculians we must stick together, even when disagreement takes place.

1. When an individual disagrees with another, they are to respectfully disagree and part ways if a compromise cannot be reached.
2. Statements of disagreement with others or disapproval of others is freedom of speech; will not be infringed upon.
3. Attempting to ruin the reputation of another for not conforming to opposing views, such as publishing statements verbally, written, or digitally, while those statements contain misinformation or blur the line of the disagreement, is character assassination.

Authorized and directed to publish this memorandum in the National Register.
