Be Missionary Disciples

We are forming a Parish Survey Study Group to review the results of the archdiocesan Survey and plan on our parish health and vitality. We are now in Phase II of the process, meaning studying ours with other regional parishes Survey results. We need your help in this process and Phase- III volunteer! We will also be creating a Mission Readiness Statement to show who and what we are...Phase III begins in the Fall with processing all data and making decisions about clustering resources and parishes together. What YOU can do: review the Survey results; volunteer and give financially to make our parish vital and vibrant; call the Rector.

Our Mission Statement: The Parish Family of St. Peter and St. Patrick affirms its faith identity by living in full accord with the gospel message of Jesus Christ, and the Teaching and Tradition of the Catholic Church. As Disciples of Christ, we give witness to that faith by active participation in the parish and its ministries. We are called by the Spirit to live the gospel, to celebrate the sacramental life of the Church, to teach, to serve and love all, and to be stewards of the gifts that we have received for future generations.

Box 1.4. Policy and Policy-Driven Model

This presidential campaign has been both exciting and fiery...

As usual it's the "most important ever"....What's a Catholic to do? Here are some guidelines...

We must follow policies = as most important, as distinguished from personages; within reason.

The Roman Catholic Church takes no stand officially on any candidate, but guides in issues (see voter's guides at United States Conference of Catholic Bishops website).

Pope Francis met recently with a candidate-and made recent remarks about another, but these are not official/doctrinal visits or statements of Faith... The most important issues to guide us include= abortion; family issues; the poor; social issues and economic equality. We must bring religion /spirituality to the voter's booth in a holistic way /and avoid voting on a single issue. Ask yourself regarding a candidate: What builds up the "culture of life"? (Pope JP II) and what does not, and so review candidates accordingly.

We must balance our own personal views of candidates w/ Church guidance (see guidelines). We must distinguish individual rights and the common good-how does a candidate address this balance?

We must avoid false views = that there should be no religion in politics at all / or, oppositely, religion can superimpose totally upon the common good. There must be a balance between religion and the pluralistic-common good These days it seems politics has gone personal with invectives =this is most unfortunate-we can admire those candidates who do not do this.

So: inform your conscience with good, Christian-Catholic values-- and vote!

Peace and Easter-Spring Blessings! Fr Jack Lombardi
