

Outdoor Introduction Day

Big smile and big confidence boost after successfully making a fire unsupported.

Course details:

- Outdoor Introduction Day: OID.
- Course duration equals 1 day, from 8am to 6pm.
- Designed for the individual or a small group.
- No prior experience needed.
- Coaching of introductory knowledge, entry level skills and basic outfitting.
- All course materials and field supplies are provided.
- All food and non-alcoholic beverages are included. *
- Conducted on private property or Crown land in the Burks Falls, ON area.*

Course content: WID.

How do I get started, what do I need and where do I go? Basic know-how and introduction level information of topics which include:

- Planning & preparing for trips
- Emergency considerations & leaving word
- Location selection & travel
- Five pillars of outdoor skills & proficiency
- Necessary gear selection
- Cutting tool use
- Campsite selection
- Putting up a tarp
- Gathering fire wood
- Starting a fire
- Boiling water for a hot drink
- Cooking a lunch on flames
- Starting a journal & documenting progress

Cooking a delicious and filling lunch on your campfire.

Pricing details:

- Pricing in Canadian dollars with tax included.
- OID = $150

Additional info:

- * Course runs from 8am to 6pm with lunch and snack breaks. Participants who have a commute of 2 hours or more are welcome to arrive on the evening before the course starts and depart the next morning after the course has ended.
- * For safety reasons, participants with food allergies are required to be completely self-sufficient in regards to food and its preparation. Any and all personal medications need to be present. Some special dietary requests can be catered for. Bring extra snacks or any specific non-alcoholic refreshments if preferred.
- * Participants are required to bring adequate protective and warm and/or waterproof clothing for a day out in the woods. Please consider any seasonal requirements.
- * A 'release of liability waiver' has to be completed upon entering private property and before starting the course.

Learn to put up a tarp and configure it to your needs.

Cancellation & re-booking:

- Upon expressing interest and prior to booking, any questions or further inquiries can be discussed by email and/or phone.
- Deposit equaling 50% of the course fee is to be transferred upon reservation.
- Deposit is non-refundable but can be transferred to a new reservation date should the participant's initially selected date become inconvenient and therefore canceled.
- Total course fee or final balance is to be transferred not later than 14 calendar days prior to the scheduled course date.
- Cancellations for any reason within 14 calendar days of the scheduled course dates are subjected to a 25% non-refundable fee.