Dear DCTR Members and Friends

Are you looking for a fun event? Join DCTR for an exciting AHCA event at DCTR this upcoming Saturday, August 1st starting at 9 am. AHCA is a competitive obstacle event that has courses for all levels of horse and rider. From lead line for the very young rider and in hand for young horses to more difficult courses for the experienced horse and riders. Courses are designed for all breeds and disciplines. AHCA has divisions for all ages and all levels of riders and horses. Rules allow riders to use strategy when completing an obstacle to showcase the horse's training and the partnership with the rider. Although this is a timed event the emphasis is on horsemanship.

We look forward to seeing you there! Questions? Call or text Joyce Martin, 816-505-0577, for more information

DCTR's First Friday meeting on August 7th is an outdoor riding meeting. Bring your horse and use the arena and ride the obstacles. We will have a short meeting at 7 pm. Come early and stay late to ride.
