

Scott Martens ATC

Scott Martens is a Certified Athletic Trainer who coordinates OrthoNebraska Sports Medicine. Scott has provided care to a variety of athletes to include: Professional Football, mixed martial arts, rodeo, college, high school and youth sports. Scott has received several awards to include: Nebraska Hall of Fame, Nebraska Athletic Trainer of the year, NSAA Distinguished Service Award along with several others.

Scott grew up in a small farming community where he developed his passion for the outdoors. He spent his youth working on farms doing everything from milking to hog management to crop work. From there he went to play football in college and afterwards did a stint in the US Army. After his Army commitment Scott returned to college and obtained his Athletic Training degree and has been working with athletes for over 25 years.

Scott lives in Omaha with his wife Patricia on a small acreage and has two grown sons and two grandchildren.