Novena to the Divine Mercy- Beginning Good Friday

Jesus said to St. Faustina: "I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the front of my Mercy. On each day you will bring to My Heart a different group of souls, and you will immerse them in this ocean of My Mercy, and I will bring all these souls into the house of my Father. (Diary 1209)

Jesus gave St. Faustina the enclosed novena. It was His instructions to pray for the world, ask for Mercy and trust Him.

He promised many graces for all who prayed starting on Good Friday.

feeling for “more.” That “more” is Jesus Christ and His Divine Life!
We are built for that “more,” our DNA is prescribed for that “more;” our brains and our hearts are attuned for that “more”—God. Do you have a passion for “That”—or do you ration your passion =ie., I'll get to “That” -His Passion, later?
A Way to get in touch with “That more,” , is Passion Week and Christ's Sacrifice: we learn, re-enact, re-present His Passion to tap into His Sacrifice, we undergo it = the Giving All! We too, disciples, must give all—and we learn by example and participation—actually “getting into the action”. Don't ration (minimalize) the Passion;. Don't just “think about it”—in the head. The Catholic Church gives you this great gift: Passion Week to participate IN ! So this Week give time in prayer (give of your very self, totally!); attend services, read the Bible accounts—get into them; fast (actually get hungry) and alms-give (the pain of letting go of money and clothes and food to others)--thus giving All of yourself, and making efforts like the Master, to learn to be in His Mind, giving All.
When you make a confession this week (see schedule above) you empty out sinfulness and fill up with grace—His Life, His All. So: Don't ration the Passion! Pray and repeat all Holy Week: Your ruby droplets of Blood/ heal and free me Above... He didn't ration, will you?
+Peace and Blessings- Fr. Jack Lombardi, Pilgrim & Pastor
