Pope Francis' special intentions for the month of OCTOBER:

A Church Open To Everyone

We pray for the Church; ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel, may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

ALLELUIA!

The word of God is living and effective,
discerning reflections and thoughts of the heart.

READINGS FOR THE 29th. SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading - Exodus 17:8-13
Primera Lectura - Éxodo 17:8-13

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 121:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8
Salmo Responsorial - Salmo 120:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

Second Reading - 2 Timothy 3:14, 4:2
Segunda Lectura - 2 Timoteo 3:14, 4:2

Gospel - Luke 18:1-8
Evangelio - Lucas 18:1-8

The first point is to affirm the fact that failure is not sweet at all. It hurts. As human beings with feelings, we are bound to know the difference between joyful and painful emotions. At any rate, we are responsible for our reactions after the painful feelings. Some would rightly get up again and move on courageously, while some would refuse to get up after an episode of failure. What I learnt was that "failure is not fatal. Success is not final. It is courage that counts" I vowed never to give up. I am so glad too, with the story of the widow which Jesus told in today's gospel. The widow had the courage to keep "hitting hard". Sure, the Judge represents God, while the widow could be any of us. The action of the widow tells us something about praying without giving up. However, let us be warned that God, unlike the Judge in the story, would never see our prayers as a "disturbance". He is God and not man.

St. Teresa of Jesus

Mystic | Teacher of Prayer | Doctor of the Church

St. Teresa of Jesus was born on March 28, 1515, in Avila, Spain. Her mother died when she was 14, and she entered the Carmelite Monastery in Avila in 1535. Her life as a Carmelite, though far removed from the mainstream of modern culture, still speaks powerfully to us today.

The Book of Her Life, The Way of Perfection, The Interior Castle, and The Foundations are her main works, detailing her remarkable pathway to God. It is through these profoundly human yet mystical writings that we experience Teresa's spirit that inspires us to enter into an ever deeper relationship with God.

Teresa died in 1582 at the age of 67. In 1622 she was canonized, and in 1970 Pope Paul VI declared her a Doctor of the Church, the first woman ever to be so recognized.

PRAYER

Let nothing disturb you,
Nothing frighten you.
All things are passing.
God never changes.
Patient endurance attains all things.
Whoever possesses God lacks nothing,
God alone is sufficient.

En 1604 se inició el proceso de canonización de Teresa. En 1614 fue declarada beata, y en 1622 fue canonizada por Gregorio XV. En 1970 fue proclamada doctora de la Iglesia, siendo la primera mujer que recibía esta distinción. Además de las obras citadas, dejó escritas las siguientes: Meditaciones sobre los cantares, Exclamaciones, Visita de descalzas, Avisos, Ordenanzas de una cofradía, Apuntaciones, Desafío espiritual, Vejamen y unas treinta poesías.

Nada te turbe,
nada te espante,
+ todo se pasa,
Dios no se muda,
+ la paciencia +
todo lo alcanza;
quien a Dios tiene
nada le falta: +
sólo Dios basta.
