

2022 Riley Festival
October 6-9
Pumpkin Decorating Contest

Get into the spirit of the 2022 Riley Festival with our
Pumpkin Decorating Contest.

Don't let the "Gobble-uns git you"
and use this year's theme of "Little Orphant Annie" for your entry.

Contest Rules:

You may use pumpkins, gourds or squash for your project.

Carved entries will not be allowed.

You may use paper, glue, paint, or other craft items to decorate your entry.

The maximum height of an entry is 18 inches.

A cash prize of $25 will be awarded to the entry that best demonstrates this year's theme based on "Little Orphant Annie" in each of three age categories:

*Under 10 years old

* 11-17

* 18 and older (Yes, let's have creative adult entries)

And:

* Viewers Choice

Pumpkins should be brought to the Hancock County Arts Council, 20 N. State St., in Greenfield between 3:00 – 6:00 pm on October 6.

Entries will remain on exhibit until 3:00 pm Sunday, October 9 when they are available for pick up. Pumpkins not picked up by 5:15 pm will be discarded.
