

Shunte Gamble

EMPOWERING TODAY'S LEADERS

Shunte Gamble

Shunte is an award winning entrepreneur, best selling author, motivational speaker, and radio personality.

As a renowned community leader and motivational speaker, Shunte Gamble is an empowering personality who is sought-after by top industry professionals and organizations, both locally and worldwide. For over a decade, she has equipped leaders with the tools to achieve new levels in their professional careers, break barriers blocking their personal goals, and create action plans that promote continued growth.

As an inspirational speaker and leading authority on mindset, Shunte's main mission is to remain an effective catalyst for change and success through her practical approach to pursuing one's life goals. She infuses her life experiences, through personal stories of authenticity, into the reality of day-to-day living. She curated Let's Talk Life XL in 2019, a radio and podcast show, and since has collaborated with hundreds of successful business leaders to share learned experiences and gained knowledge covering the topics of life, business, and mindset.

Shunte understands the desire to be successful deeply impacts how business professionals tend to view their progress. She believes, "Although we cannot control every aspect of life, we can reform and align our thinking with our actions to see the success we want to achieve". She tenaciously dedicates herself to using her voice to remind thousands they are more successful than they realize.

Shunte Gamble

Shunte has developed several impactful avenues in order to deliver her messages to go-getters. She is the CEO of Women Empowering Change INC, Mixed Talk Media, Mixed Talk Radio, Mixed Talk Magazine, and The Blueprint. Along with being a successful entrepreneur, Shunte is also a best-selling author.

Her charisma and never-ending push for change are reflected in her winning multiple leadership and business awards, including Houston's Top 40 under 40, Wonder of Wonder Award, and the most recent being the Debrah Arise Award Marketplace Forerunner Award in 2021.

Shunte's heart-centered passion and humor motivate audiences to believe in their ability to achieve success beyond their perceived limitations. She has enlarged her role from speaker to creating workshops, summits, and educational resources that foster professional and personal development and sharpens one's mindset.
