

The Parable of the Two Sons

Matthew 21:23-32

He having come into the sanctuary, the chief priests and elders of the people came near to Him as He was teaching, saying, By what authority do You do these things? And who gave this authority to You?

And answering, Yahshua said to them, I also will ask you one thing, which if you tell Me, I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, from where was it? From Heaven, or from men? And they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we shall say, from Heaven, He will say to us, why then did you not believe him? But if we should say, From men, we fear the people. For all hold John to be a prophet.

And answering Yahshua, they said, We do not know. And He said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things. But what do you think? A man had two children, and coming to the first he said, Child, go today; work in my vineyard.

And answering, he said, I will not. But afterward, having regretted, he went. And having come to the second, he said the same. And answering, he said, I go, sir; but he did not leave.

Which of the two did the will of the father? They said to Him, The first. Yahshua said to them, Truly I say to you, the tax collectors and the harlots go before you into the kingdom of YAHWEH. For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him. But the tax-collectors and the harlots believed him. And having seen you did not repent afterward to believe him.

And when Solomon finished praying, then fire came down from Heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Yahweh filled the house.
