Match the Word to the Definition

Draw a line from the words on the right to the correct definition on the left

WORDS

Interest

Slavery

Mortgaging

Noble

Oath

Gentile

Reproach

DEFINITIONS

A legally binding pledge to do something such as tell the truth in a court of law, made formally, and often naming God as a witness

The expression of disapproval or disappointment

A fee a borrower pays the lender for the use of borrowed money

A person who is not Jewish

The practice of using the enforced labor of other people

Belonging to a hereditary class with high social or political status

An agreement by which somebody borrows money from a money-lending organization such as a bank and gives that organization the right to take possession of property given as security if the loan is not repaid