Documents together to prove marriage.

- Photos of when they were engaged, with friends, with family, and photos of the wedding. (I need each photo with a pencil on the back to put the date and place when the photo was taken and what happened that day the photo was taken. For example, a birthday or Christmas?)
- Statements of account of the account together that they have in the bank
- Contract of the apartment or insurance of your own home
- Electricity receipt with the names of both
- Internet receipt in the name of both
- Any document that has the name of both and the address where they currently live
- Letters from friends and family
 - For the letters: They must include your full name, address, telephone number, details of the relationship with you and mention occasions that you have lived together. (Try to include dates, types of occasions, and places)
- Medical examination (Remember that this we will wait until you are called to the appointment to do it)
- Money Order or cashier's check for fees made payable to "U.S. Departement of Homeland Security"(I will ask you for this until you have your package ready to be shipped)

I remind you that this is not an exhaustive list. This means that if in the course of preparing your package we use any other document, I will let you know.
