

MORE PAGAN SYMBOLS OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

Sun worship in Peru.

Altar at St. Peters Basilica

In the Basilica of St. Peters, atop the columns of the proclaimed highest altar of Christendom, are the decorative images of the SUN god. On the wall next to it, is a gigantic image of a "sunburst", which appears above the altar when one enters the church. Large sun-images also adorn the walls of many other Catholic churches all over the world, including the church of the Gesu, in Rome. It's not surprising to know that the Babylonian temples had these same images.

Above the main entrance of many churches you can see a “wheel window”, or “solar disc”, that looks like a spoked wheel (chariot wheel), with a center hub. Many pagans of old thought of the sun as a great chariot driven by the sun-god. Even the Israelites, at one time, when worshipping the Baal god, called this symbol, “chariots of the sun”. 2Kgs. 23:11 “And he did away with the horses which the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of Elohim, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the official, which {was} in the precincts; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire”.

Above the famous bronze statue of St. Peter, at St. Peters Basilica, there is a Babylonian pagan solar-wheel image. This same symbol appears frequently above the heads of statues and pictures of Mary, and various saints of Catholicism.

In 1934 the German armed forces swore an oath of loyalty to Hitler: — Notice the two fingered salute. Doesn't this look familiar?

The two fingered “peace symbol”, of the days of the hippies, had nothing to do with peace at all; its origin was pagan Rome. When you see two fingers held up by the Pope they stand for the two pillars of, Apostolic Succession, and Temporal Power. These two fingers are seen throughout the Catholic art, including pictures of Jesus and the Virgin Mary. The first pillar is nothing but a theatrical stage prop from which the Pope releases his artificial authority from Rome, (otherwise known as religious show business). This was granted him by the forged documents of Constantine. The second pillar of temporal power is the Vatican claiming it has authority over the kings of the earth.

This two fingered salute used by the Pope is the same one used by Hitler and the German army. In 1934 when the German army swore an oath to Adolph Hitler, they used the two fingered salute that is still used today in the Vatican.

Whenever the pope goes to another country he is often shown kissing the ground of that country, as an act of humility. This is far from the truth. He is in fact, claiming the land as his own, because of his so-called temporal power.

When the pope visits a country and kisses the ground, many believe it to be an act of humility. In reality, he is claiming the land as his own . . . because of temporal power.

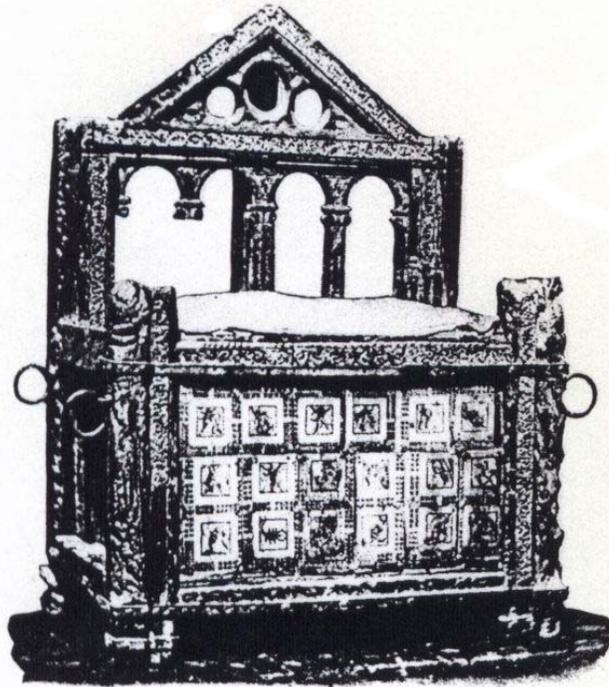

The Catholic system today stands on those two phoney pillars . . .

And the world has bought it.

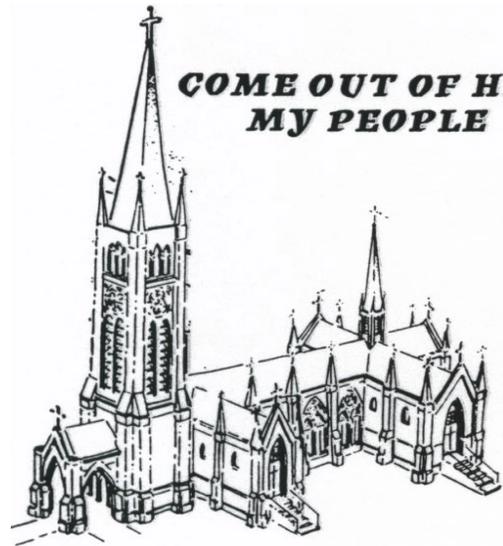

The Bible says: ". . . and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication." (Rev. 17:2)

In St. Peter's there is a chair that the church claims Peter used in Rome. If one looks closely at the chair you will see pagan symbols decorating the front, and large brass rings designed to have poles pulled through them so the chair could be lifted up and paraded through public. Can you imagine Peter being paraded around in public and treated this way, sitting on a chair decorated with witchcraft symbols?

In 1825 on the occasion of the jubilee, Pope Leo 12th. struck a medal, bearing on the one side his own image, and on the other, that of the church of Rome symbolized as a "Woman", holding in her left hand a cross, and in her right a cup, with these words written around her; "The whole world is in her seat". This is the slogan used by the fertility goddess Semiramis hundreds of years before.

Other pagan symbols and rituals that are questionable include the use of incense and holy water in purification's, the altar, the worship of statues of the saints, and the architecture of the famous Basilica. Almost all the symbols of the Roman Catholic church are copies of those used in the Babylonian god temples. These things related to heathen worship in the end times, must be recognized by true Believers, as Daniel warns us in Dan. 11:31-32 "And forces from him will arise, desecrate the sanctuary fortress, and do away with the regular sacrifice. And they will set up the abomination of desolation. "And by smooth {words} he will turn to godlessness those who act wickedly toward the covenant, but the people who know their YHVH will display strength and take action."

Rev. 18:4

The roots of many of the so-called “Christian” churches today have become rooted in the god’s of Babylon, Greek, and Rome. The Gentile branch of the tree has fallen from its trunk. The nation of Israel and its people, and a new root has formed out of the depths of hell itself. This new root cannot produce anything holy simply because it comes from unholiness. In Deut. 12:4 Adonai made it clear “You shall not act like this toward Adonai your YHVH” It is not possible to have one foot in the roots of Babylon and one foot in the roots of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Although few acknowledge it, the Popes of old made millions of dollars selling bones of Martyrs in and around the years 600-800. Graves were commonly plundered and the bones sold to the highest bidders. In about 750 it was quite common to see complete wagon loads of skulls and bones coming into Rome to be sold by the church for their special powers. At the St. Prassede church there is a stone slab that says on it that in 817, Pope Pascal had the bodies of 2,300 martyrs transferred from cemeteries all over, to that church. In 609 Pope Boniface 4th. converted the heathen Pantheon to a supposed Christian church. In doing so he had 28 car-loads of sacred bones placed in a porphyry basin beneath the high altar. The Castle church at Wittenberg that Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses to the door of, had the bones of 19,000 martyrs buried in its midst because they had sacred meanings. Many believe they got this insane idea from Jer. 8:1 and 10:21.

The rooster, or cock, is found in ancient pictures as a symbol of the god “Janus”, who was known as the “keeper of the keys and gates” of Rome. When found in historical works, it is usually associated with Janus. This symbol can be found in some church writings, and pictures; told to be associated with Peter’s defiance of knowing Jesus.(John 18:27)

“Nimrod was a master warlock (male witch). Under his direction, astrology was developed. He also laid the groundwork for both white and black witchcraft.

The symbol of “praying hands” (two hands together pointing up) is a pagan Hindu custom. Praying, of course, has nothing to do with your hands. When Rome became a world empire, it is a known fact that she assimilated into her system the gods and religions from the various pagan countries over which she ruled. Since Babylon was the source of the paganism of these countries, we can see how the early religion of pagan Rome was but the Babylonish worship that had developed into various forms, under different names, into the various countries.

It is absolutely undeniable that most of the rituals, symbols, and celebrations that Christendom honors and gives reverence to, are from paganism of ancient times. The Roman Catholic church is by far the worst influence of pagan customs in supposed Christianity today. It stands out like a sore thumb. Its Scholars know their church has adopted them into the midst of their church and will not deny it. Instead of abruptly removing these heathen customs, as you would assume they would do if they truly give honor to Adonai, they have hidden the truth about their origin, in hope that no one will ever know. This, incidentally, is called a “cover up”. They reason that though originally pagan, these customs can be Christianized. If some pagan gives reverence to a pagan god and honors it for 40 days why don’t we do the same in honor of Christianity? Though pagans worshipped the sun toward the east, could we not have sunrise services to honor the resurrection of Yeshua, even though this is not the time or date of His death or resurrection? Even though the egg was used by pagans to symbolize fertility, can’t we continue its use and pretend it symbolizes the large rock that was in front of the tomb of Yeshua ? In other words, why not adopt all kinds of popular customs, only instead of using them to honor pagan gods, as the heathens did, use them to honor our Yahveh? To some this may sound very logical, yet a much safer guideline is found in the Bible itself; Deut. 12:30-32

“beware that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed before you, and that you do not inquire after their gods, saying, ‘How do these nations serve their gods, that I also may do likewise?’ ‘You shall not behave thus toward Elohim your YHVH, for every abominable act which Elohim hates they have done for their gods; for they even burn their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods. “Whatever I command you, you shall be careful to do; you shall not add to nor take away from it”. There are many other scriptures that state Adonai’s opinion but one more that stands out to me wraps it all neatly up, it is found in 1Cor. 10:21-22 “You cannot drink the cup of Adonai and the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the table of Adonai and the table of demons. Or do we provoke Adonai to jealousy? We are not stronger than He, are we?”

Yellow has always been a color signifying “danger”; like yellow jackets (wasps), or the stripes on many police uniforms. The star of David patches, which the Jews were forced to wear in WW2 were also yellow.

The five rings used as the symbol of the Olympic Games are pagan symbols too. The five circles replaced the five pointed star for this event, which represented Venus in earlier years, also commonly called the “pentagram”. The Olympic games were a sort of combined worshipping and competition festival from their origin. They were held in honor of “ZEUS” at the foot of the mountain of the god’s, Olympus. They were held every four years because the planet Venus (an astrology symbol), returned to its same point in the zodiac calendar every four years. “JE-ZEUS”

The “swastika” and the “winged world”, were also pagan symbols for the sun, centuries before Yeshua was born.

The “tongue sticking out” on statues of many gods such as the Aztec gods and other occult deities, represents “death”. The Aztecs worshipped the serpent as the symbol of life. As Satan told Eve, “you shall not die”, in the garden of Eden.

The Hawaiian lei is a pagan object/symbol used to give reverence to the gods of the native Hawaiians. The custom of wearing leis comes directly from the worship of the demon gods of the Islands. The original people of the Islands made leis, and placed them around the statues of their gods to appease them, hoping to prevent their demands for human sacrifices. They also wore the leis as symbols of reverence and honor to their gods, to maintain good relationships with them. They believed it brought them good luck. The ti plant is also a symbol of demonic reverence by people of the Islands. Many Islanders have ti plants around their homes to appease the gods. Some even make leis out of the ti plants to receive favors from the gods. To this very day, the demon gods of the Hawaiian Islands are so powerful that all new buildings being constructed on the land must first be visited by a shaman or witch doctor to seek approval from the gods. Obviously it is safe to say that one must never accept, or put on a lei.

Yin and Yang signs represent “duality”, good and evil, right and wrong. These things are taught not to be considered opposites, but harmonized.

Tying a yellow ribbon around an oak tree got its origin from the custom of tying yellow ribbons around oak trees because it represented a prayer to the Sun.

More unfathomable things about the Roman Catholic church

In Roman Catholicism, the Bible alone is not considered the word of Yahveh. To them, the word of God is “tradition,” plus “magisterial” (the teaching authority of the institution), and last of all, the Bible. Only when it is put together do they have what they consider to be the word of God.

The doctrine of the Catholic church says if a child isn’t baptized, and dies, it goes to hell.

In Rome, Cybele, a mother goddess, was worshipped. This three day worship was called “Hilaria”, or commonly “Ides Of March”, because it was celebrated from March 15-18 every year. Many Catholics still observe this pagan festival.

In 1860 the Vatican ordered Abraham Lincoln to be stopped at all costs and they did have him killed.

Near the city of Chichicastenango, in Guatemala, there are two Roman Catholic churches facing each other; one looking eastward giving reverence to the rising sun god, and the other facing westward giving reverence to the setting sun god. They are set up identical to the Tikal temples of the Mayan sun god worshippers.

The hill in Rome where the Vatican is, is called “vaticanis,” which in Latin means, “the place of divination”. It became “the habitation of devils” as referred to in Rev. 18:2.

One of Satan’ best handiwork’s came in the form of the Roman Catholic, “Latin Vulgate” Bible.

In 1974 the Vatican made it officially acceptable for Roman Catholic men to join the Masons. A special Lodge was even formed called the P2 Lodge.

In the 1500’s Pope Leo 10th. needed money to put up a new Basilica, so he sent preachers out (one was John Tetzel), to sell indulgences. Any Roman Catholic who was guilty of sin or crime, even murder, could buy an indulgence, be set free by the courts, be forgiven, and guaranteed entrance into Heaven. This was the straw that broke Martin Luther’s back. He soon nailed his 95 arguments/theses on the door of the church in protest, and the fight began. Too bad they never continued to protest.

According to the Catholic church a “heretic” is: “anyone who doesn’t go along with the Pope or the teaching of the Roman Catholic church.”

The Catholic church is the biggest financial power, wealth accumulator, and property owner in existence. She is a greater possessor of material riches than any other single institution, corporation, bank, giant trust, government, or state, of the entire globe. The Popes, (including the Black Pope), as the visible rulers of this immense wealth, are consequently the richest individuals of the 20th. century. Their value in dollars cannot even be reasonably estimated in billions of dollars.

The Roman Catholic church has been extremely embarrassed. They claimed to have built St. Peters Basilica over Peters grave, but it has been proven that Peters grave was in Jerusalem on the Franciscan Monastery site called “Dominus Flevit”. They still haven’t publicly apologized for their fraudulent claims.

The Catholic system believes itself to be the fulfillment of the “divine commission” of the four horsemen of Revelation 6, in which they bring about a one world church and a one world government under the papacy, to usher in the millennial kingdom.

The document called “The donations of Constantine,” supposedly made the Popes heir to the entire Roman Empire after Constantine’s death, were forged under the anti-Messiah Pope Hadrian 1st. The popes declared that they were the successors of St. Peter, and that they alone held the keys to life and death. This is the origin of the Roman Catholic churches control over Rome and the wealth that came with it.

In 1983 the assets of the Roman Catholic church in the United States only, were estimated at well over 100 billion dollars. This amount is more than double the amount of the top five industrial businesses combined wealth. Today's value of the Vatican cannot even be estimated in billions.

The ultimate goal of the Roman Catholic church is to get control of the Holy city of Jerusalem. The Vatican helped to finance the three Islam armies of old, in exchange for three favors: One was to eliminate the Jews and Bible Believers. One was to protect the Augustinian monks and the Roman Catholics, and the last reason was the most important; to conquer Jerusalem for the Pope. The Muslim army conquered Jerusalem, but refused to co-operate with the Vatican. This started the hatred between the two heathen religions, but because of their shady past, this was never made public knowledge. Muslims went on to conquer the world in the name of their god "Allah", while the Catholics went on to conquer the world in the name of Mary.

It is estimated that there were over 68 million victims of the Roman Catholic inquisition from its beginning in 1200AD.

Catholics believe that when they are sprinkled with water they are "born again", even if they are babies. They are made to believe that as long as they worship Mary and remain faithful to the system, they are saved. They believe that they receive Jesus every time they eat the Host (bread) during mass. When the priest is saying the Mass they believe they are actually eating the body and blood of Yeshua .

Jim Jones was a student of Father Divine* (a demon-possessed preacher, deep into the occult). Jones was a powerful warlock and a well trained Jesuit.
Jones was into the ecumenical and charismatic work. He preached the love gospel. Most of his followers were Roman Catholics and from Roman Catholic backgrounds. Others were unsaved Protestants from a variety of denominations. In 1953 he established a Christian Assembly of God Church.
In 1962, he became a missionary to Brazil, associated with the Christian Assembly of God, which he founded.
In 1964, Jones was ordained under the Disciples of Christ Church... his key people were Roman Catholics.*
And like a good Jesuit, Jim Jones ordered his followers to call him "Father" and pray to him, in 1973.

The word "repent" to a Catholic means, he must buy God off by doing penance for his sin. The priest forgives the individual but makes him do penance; which may be 50 Hail Mary's, or the Lord's prayer, or light candles to the saints or the Virgin Mary, or whatever the priest says to do.

Long before the Crusades, the Vatican secretly negotiated and financed Mohammed (through a Roman Catholic relative), to help them annihilate the Jews, but when the Islamic forces captured Jerusalem in the name of the prophet Mohammed. The Pope was blocked from moving the Vatican there because Mohammed turned around and called the Pope and the Jews, infidels.

The "IHS" stamped on the Catholic host bread used during Mass, has for thousands of years stood for Isis, Horus, and Seb, three Egyptian gods. IHS is the surname of Bacchus the sun god. IHS or IES is the abbreviated form of IHSOUS (Iesous) in Greek. Tammuz was known as Bacchus to many.

The white garment often worn by the Pope is a perfect symbol of the counterfeit, the "angel of light," working within the church, the nest of the anti-Messiah.

Jim Jones, the Jesuit priest, frequently used the two fingered salute of the Pope, and yet many missed this secret sign, identifying himself as a fellow Jesuit and member of the secret society of Jesuits.

Canon Law and dogma, by reason of ordination, grant the Roman Catholic priest two powers: to forgive sins and to perform Mass. These two positions place him in the position of Jesus according to the Catholic teaching.

The adoration of the Virgin Mary was, and still is in many cases, substituted for the worship of the pagan gods Venus and Diana.

The Roman Catholic church sided with the South for "slavery," at the time of the civil war. Rome is said to have had more influence in the civil war than the people of the United States.

In 1937 a special outdoor open Mass was held by the Pope to bless the Nazi party and the Fuhrer.

It was the Catholic vote that swept the fascist dictator Mussolini into power. Because of this Mussolini signed a secret concordat with Pope Pius 11th. making Roman Catholicism the only religion allowed in Italy at that time.

Many Roman Catholic priests wore the black uniforms of Hitler's secret police, the Gestapo.

The Vatican has never recognized Israel as a Nation.

According to Pope Gregory 7th. an apostate (outcast from the church), have no right to live.

The I.O.R. is the Vatican Bank; IOR stands for: Institute for Religious Works.

In Charles H Spurgeons book, "Satan a defeated foe," he wrote "the Pope is the firstborn son of Satan".

A book called, "A taste of water," (Christianity through Taoist, Buddhist Eyes), sold by the hundreds of thousands in Christian book stores, was co-authored by a Catholic Priest and a Nun. A book called, "Love meets wisdom," (A Christian experience of Buddhism) was written by a Jesuit priest Aloysius Pieris. These books are often available in Christian book stores.
