

STRENGTH

Father, at times I feel so weary and tired because I find myself doing things in my own strength that cause me to yield to temptations. Lord, I desire to be faithful. Teach me Lord, to truly abide in You, minute by minute, and to learn to wait for You as my first option, rather than as my last resort and to resist the devil that he may flee. I pray that I may hand over all the responsibilities of the day into Your hands so that Your hand is leading and directing me in all the decisions that I make. Father, You promise that those who hope in the LORD, You will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary; they will walk and not be faint. I hope in You Lord. Thank you for giving power to me the faint and increasing the strength of me the weak during my trials and difficulties. I know that without You I can do nothing, but You have promised that I can do all things through Christ Who strengthens me. I believe that You are the One Who gives strength, so I thank you for strengthening me with Your power and arming me with Your might. I proclaim that Your grace is sufficient for me, and Your strength is made perfect in my weakness. When I am weak, rise in me. Outshine my weakness with Your amazing strength. For I declare that I was once weak but now I am strong in Your son Jesus Name, Amen.

He is Jehovah Chatsahi, The Lord Your Strength!
