The 102nd National CWL Convention was held in Kelowna this past weekend and seven ladies from our CWL Council attended.

Almost 450 women from across Canada attended the convention at the Grand Delta Hotel on the shore of Okanagan Lake. We were blessed to have Father Paul and many priests, along with four Bishops attending and presiding over the Masses including Bishop Joseph Nguyen (Kamloops), Bishop Gregory Bittman (Nelson), Bishop Stephen Jensen (Prince George) and Archbishop Emeritus Currie all the way from Newfoundland Labrador!

The Roaring 20's Night, shown here, was in celebration of our 100th anniversary in 2020....when we were not able to hold a Convention.

The photo shows our very own Carol Ann Taphorn, Angie Kohlen, Anna May McCarvill, Katie Young, Lorna Sapp, Jane Cameron and Christine Mason.

The CWL of Canada was formed in 1920, the main purpose being to help immigrant women and their children. The business sessions included two great speakers and the instructed votes where all were adopted except replacing Our Lady of Good Council with Our Lady of Guadalupe. This means the hard work of the Strategic Planning Committees will be implemented when we have our elections in November. Make sure to come out and hear about the changes to the League!

One Resolution titled "Enact Federal Legislation to Reduce Food Loss and Waste", was brought to the floor and was adopted meaning it will be presented to the Federal Government.

Did you know that there is a Ukrainian Catholic Women's League of Canada? The President Barbara Hlus, spoke at the convention. Also, did you know that Catholic military women of Canada have their own provincial council, called The Military Ordinariate?

We invite ALL Catholic women to become a member of the CWL of Canada so watch for our membership drive this fall and find out why you should become a member!
