THANK YOU

to our visiting priest

Thank you to Father Clayton Elmhurst for serving this weekend. We are so grateful to Fr. Elmhurst for his pastoral presence and for sharing his wisdom through his homily.

Join us following Sunday morning mass on the last Sunday of each month (next week for January) for donuts and coffee. Get to know some of your fellow parishioners!

Candlemas commemorates the ritual purification of Mary, 40 days after the birth of her son Jesus.

This day also marks the ritual presentation of the baby Jesus to God in the Temple at Jerusalem. ... On Candlemas night, many people place lighted candles in their windows at home. It falls on February 2, which is traditionally the 40th day of and the conclusion of the Christmas. We have candles blessed for you to take home and use.

"SIMON THE FISHERMAN TRUSTED THIS RABBI, WHO DID NOT GIVE HIM ANSWERS BUT REQUIRED HIM TO TRUST."

POPE BENEDICT XVI

A Minute with Jesus: Why does Jesus want to stay with us always?

You know that Jesus wants to stay with you always because He loves you unconditionally (completely). Why? Because He wants to be with the person He loves. How do you (we) know He loves you so much? Jesus gave His life for you by dying on the Cross so that your sins can be forgiven.

Let's pray this right now and every day this week.
Thank You, Jesus, that You want to be with me all the time.

This week read Psalm 139: 13-16 which speak of how well God knows you and how close He is to you.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS by Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Art of Retreat

Social media has made it far too easy for me to share my opinion. These virtual spaces tend to strip our words of all empathy. Someone will post something that I think is nonsense, and I just have to tell them why — and quickly! Hurry! Before they delete it! Nine times out of ten, when the dust is settled, I find that I've said too much and listened too little.

As I've gotten older, the motto I try (not always successfully) to live by is this: You do not have to be on the attack all of the time, even if it's for what you think is the truth.

I can't help but notice that the first thing Jesus does when he hears of the arrest of John the Baptist is to retreat. He doesn't punch a hole in a wall or take to the streets in protest. He withdraws.

And what does he do after withdrawing? A lot of praying, I would imagine. A lot of thinking, a lot of reflecting. A lot of listening to the voice of his Father.

Sometimes we mistake stillness with vulnerability. But Christ shows us that to withdraw, to contemplate, can actually be a tremendous show of strength. Even the fiercest dogs wait for the command of their master before they act.

For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with the wisdom of human eloquence.

— 1 Corinthians 1:17
