Prompt: Describe, using sensory details and at least one simile, an encounter with a villain or a monster.

Mentor Text

Through the mist in front of him, [Harry] saw, with an icy surge of terror, the dark outline of a man, tall and skeletally thin, rising slowly from inside the cauldron. (...) The thin man stepped out of the cauldron, staring at Harry... and Harry stared back into the face that had haunted his nightmares for three years. Whiter than a skull, with wide, livid scarlet eyes and a nose that was flat as a snake's with slits for nostrils...

Lord Voldemort had risen again.

Voldemort looked away from Harry and began examining his own body. His hands were like large, pale spiders; his long white fingers caressed his own chest, his arms, his face; the red eyes, whose pupils were slits, like a cat's, gleamed still more brightly in the darkness. (...) Voldemort turned his scarlet eyes upon Harry, laughing a high, cold, mirthless laugh."
