With more than 20 years in the industry, Confidance Studio has become a highly regarded studio in the Kitchener Waterloo area. While previously owned by Joanne Flanagan, her dream of providing inclusive and quality dance education is continued by Jessica Harrison. Our goal at Confidance is to give every student a place to find their love of dance while also providing quality technical training with a focus on storytelling. Whether you are a beginner student or advanced senior, our goal is to help your love of dance flourish.

Programs

Jazz - Tap - Ballet - Acro - Hip Hop - Pre-school Classes

Pre-School Classes

Classes specially designed for our youngest dancers. The focus of these classes are to have fun while learning new steps. Dancers start at 3 years old in our creative movement classes progress into jazz/tap combo, acro, or ballet classes.

Recreational

for students looking to dance for fun and exercise. These classes offer the opportunity to expand your training while also socializing with friends.

Competitive

Our competitive stream is geared towards the more serious dancer. The combination of team involvement, social interaction, travel and weekly practice sessions also creates an enjoyable and rewarding experience for all students involved.

For registration information you can visit our website, or email Miss Jess directly.
