

Macomb County Resource Guide

Guide to information, programs, and services

How to use this guide

This guide contains a list of current contacts and information including websites that provide information along with descriptions of programs and services. Some are specific only to Macomb County while others are state and federal websites. The goal of this guide is to provide people with tools that will help meet their needs.

In using this guide you may find it helpful to locate a specific topic or need on the contents page, or simply browse through to identify an area to explore. If you do not have a computer at home consider accessing one at your local library. Attached to this guide is a list of libraries that will allow resident card-holders internet access. The next page contains a list of topics addressed in this guide.
